Short Congress Session Said Hurting Dems

Opposing Senators Agree on Lack of Party Cooperation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposing party spokesmen agreed today the dog-days session of Congress now drawing to a close has been politically damaging to the Democrats.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said the session had demonstrated that the Democrats "could develop no cohesive party spirit."

For that reason he said Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the party presidential nominee, failed to get passage of several bills he wanted and didn't make good on promises to introduce others.

Kennedy has promised to carry his fight to the country.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, assistant Democratic leader, said in a separate interview that the session "has hurt Congress as a whole, but has hurt the Democrats the most."

"From the President on down the Republicans have been repeating the argument hourly, on the hour, that the Democrats have a two-thirds majority in the Senate and should be able to get what they want," Mansfield said.

"That, of course, is a majority in numbers but not in unity. The President himself has the equivalent of that majority in his veto power. And he must take the responsibility for defeating some measures with veto threats."

Mansfield indicated he thinks President Eisenhower made some political gains by resubmitting his 21-point legislative program and demanding quick action on it—which he didn't get.

Dirksen said there was no question in his mind that Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the GOP presidential nominee, had benefited politically in the session.

Dirksen said that because of a liberal-conservative split among the Democrats Kennedy abandoned plans to initiate new legislation.

Republican campaign planners announced Henry Cabot Lodge, GOP vice presidential nominee, will fill in at some political functions for Vice President Richard M. Nixon while the party's standard bearer is hospitalized with a knee infection. Nixon is expected (Continued on Page 2)

Pennsy Faces Walkout Set For Midnight

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Negotiators make a last stab today—with apparently faint hope of success—at preventing a strike which will shut down the entire Pennsylvania Railroad.

More than 20,000 non-operating employees were prepared to strike the nation's largest railroad at one minute past midnight. The railroad notified most of its remaining 54,000 employees they will be furloughed so long as a strike might last.

Five-man negotiating committees from the railroad and the Transport Workers Union met until 1 a. m. today.

The railroad operates on 10,000 miles of tracks from New York and other East Coast cities to St. Louis. It already has laid off some employees because of a decline in freight business.

The TWU represents the bulk of those scheduled to strike. The System Federation Union represents the rest of the repairmen, maintenance men, car washers the like, and has been acting in union with the TWU.

The issues in dispute are job classification and the repairing of RR equipment by outside companies. Wages are not an issue.

Ohio Chamber of Commerce Urges Dems to Pay-as-Go

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An Ohio Chamber of Commerce executive told the Ohio Democratic Party platform committee that "we commend and urge continuation of a policy of pay-as-you-go in meeting the costs of state government."

Herschel C. Atkinson, executive vice president of the Ohio chamber, spoke yesterday before the committee which had invited the

C. of C. and the Ohio Manufacturers Association to send representatives to the party platform sessions.

Atkinson appeared several hours later than expected, and several party members expressed irritation at supposedly being ignored by the two groups.

When Atkinson did appear, he explained here had been an apparent mixup and it had been his understanding that the platform he would be delayed.

Atkinson told the committee preparing a platform for the Democratic convention Sep. 16-17:

"The issue before Ohio's legislators next year will be: Can Ohio continue the progress which she has made in the last two decades if the cost of doing business—tax-wise—in Ohio is put at a disadvantage in competition with neighboring and other states in this country?"

The AFL-CIO urged the committee to adopt its basic platform goals of:

Liberalized unemployment compensation, including extension of benefits from 26 to 39 weeks.

Improved workmen's compensation to provide an injured workman 75 per cent of his normal wage.

A state minimum wage of $1.25 an hour.

More state assistance to public schools.

A strong stand against any increase in Ohio's quarter-century-old three per cent sales tax.

The AFL-CIO proposals were presented by Elmer F. Cope, secretary-treasurer of the statewide labor group.

A sudden summer storm drenched the New York metropolitan area Tuesday and turned the evening rush hours into a nightlong nightmare.

Brief but violent downpours ushered in by thunder and lightning raked the region from Connecticut to New Jersey.

Flash floods sent water pouring into subway stations, inundated expressways with water and mud and tied traffic in tortured knots clogging streets from the East River halfway across Long Island.

An estimated 100,000 homeward-bound New Yorkers were stranded. At least 20,000 subway riders were trapped in broiling heat as more than a dozen trains ground to a halt in steaming tunnels. Some 150 persons on a stalled train under the East River suffered heat exhaustion.

Melvin Heads for Marines' Party

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Melvin Miller, a quiet, home-loving man, flies west today, straight into the welcoming arms of what he thinks is the wackiest bunch of Marines in the Corps.

Miller, 40, a tractor factory for man, is the puzzled, but willing, victim of a practical joke that has assumed gigantic proportions.

It started a year ago in a Marine hangout called the Sandpiper Bar in Laguna Beach, Calif.

gusted "try Peoria" and he did. Pulling a name out of the air, he asked the telephone operator to get him Melvin Miller in Peoria.

Good ol' Mel, as he's known now answered the phone and, well, today he's going to California, all expenses paid by Maj. Geston and scores of his buddies who in Marine hangouts the world over earned the saga of good ol' Mel in Peoria.

But Mel is keeping both feet on the ground.

Wrangling Delays Move By Congress To Adjourn

Texas Chief Shuns Integration Fight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. Price Daniel of Texas told the Houston School Board that he has no authority to prevent racial mixing in the classrooms of the city of more than a million persons.

The board, under a federal court order to start integration when schools open next Wednesday, had appealed to the governor to invoke the old doctrine of state interposition. Members called the governor their last hope.

Daniel cited U.S. Supreme Court decisions in saying the state has no authority in such cases.

Integration of first grades of New Orleans public schools was delayed at least until Nov. 14 by one of the federal judges who recently enjoined Louisiana Gov. Jimmie Davis from interfering with the Orleans Parish School Board. U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright said the board informed him it would be impossible to comply with the Sept. 7 integration date because of Davis' seizure of the schools Aug. 17.

In Darlington S.C., four young Negroes bearing anti-segregation placards were arrested as schools opened on their traditional segregated pattern.

Nashville, Tenn., quietly began the fourth year of its grade-a-year integration program and several Negroes were expected to register today in previously all-white Knoxville schools in the first year of a similar plan.

In Dunn, S.C., 10 Indians unsuccessfully sought to enter the all-white high school, and in St. Louis, the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that the Dolarway, Ark., school district had applied the state school placement law illegally.

While still endeavoring to delay integration, Houston opened registration.

Boy, 13, Held In Slaying Of Stepdad

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—William Franklin Jenkins, 13, who ran away from home with his younger brother and a rifle several days ago after a scolding, was caught in eastern Scioto County early today and brought here for questioning about the slaying of his stepfather.

Sheriff's deputies, who had hunted for the boy since the body of 67-year-old Clifford Riley was found in a field near his farm home Tuesday, chased and caught him in a woods near Haverhill, 15 miles east of here.

William still had his rifle with him when he was caught, shortly before 7 a. m. but no shots were fired in his capture.

Riley was shot in the chest with a .22 caliber bullet. Deputies said it appeared he had been sitting down milking a cow when he was struck.

Scioto County Sheriff's Deputy Chleo Wiltshire said he saw the youth in a brushy area near the shooting scene Tuesday. Wiltshire said the youth held him at bay with a rifle.

Wiltshire quoted the youth as saying he wasn't afraid of the deputy and didn't believe Wiltshire would shoot him. Then he ran off into the woods, the deputy said.

Jenkins said his 8-year-old brother left home several days ago after a scolding. But the younger boy returned home Monday night. Deputies said the boy has said nothing about the shooting.

for its first grades and kindergarten Tuesday. No Negroes tried to enroll in all-white schools.

The board's appeal for a delay recently was turned down by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans. But attorney Joe Reynolds has mailed another request to the U.S. Supreme Court.

In appealing to the governor by a 4-2 vote, the board fell back upon one of the early theories of states rights—that a state could interpose its sovereignty to prevent usurpation of power by federal courts.

U.N. Checks Up On Middle East

New Crisis Threatens With Jordan Incident

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—U.N. representative Pier Spinielli arrived today to confer with King Hussein, who has charged that "responsible people" in the United Arab Republic were linked with the bomb assassination of Premier Hazza Majali.

Spinielli, U.N. chief in the Middle East, was ordered by Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to rush here from Geneva to deal with the new crisis threatened in the Middle East.

Hussein many times has complained that President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the U.A.R. is trying to destroy his throne.

At a news conference Tuesday, Hussein charged that "people in Cairo" were aware of the bomb plot in which Majali and 10 other people were killed and 31 injured. Hussein added that the assassins "were linked up with responsible people in the United Arab Republic—mainly in Syria."

Two employees of the Jordan Press Bureau are reported to have fled to Syria after planting the two time bombs that exploded in Majali's office and the Press Bureau Monday.

The newspaper Al Jihad said demolition experts examining the ruins of the offices found other unexploded bombs in the building. The Amman radio broadcast accused the U.A.R. of intrigue and treason for allegedly harboring the assassins.

Hussein demanded extradition of the two suspects from the U.A.R.

Ohio Solons Ask End to CD Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio), a frequent critic of the civil defense program, Tuesday urged that the next president abolish what he called "the superannated Civil Defense Agency" and turn its duties over to the Armed Forces.

"Instant retaliation is our only defense against nuclear attack," Young told the Senate. "Civil Defense serves only to give patronage jobs in cities, states and in the nation."

Young said it is certain that next January there will be a new administration that will, as he put it, view this entire problem realistically.

House Refuses Senate's View On Sugar Quota

Foreign Aid Fund Hike Asked by Ike Also Hits Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP)—Disputes over sugar import controls and extra foreign aid funds today stalled adjournment by Congress members eager to get home to election campaigning.

Because of these difficulties, leaders shied away from saying when the session might end.

"We'll have to see how we get along," Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas told newsmen.

He said refusal of House conferees to accept 190 million dollars of extra foreign aid funds—tacked on to the final catch-all money bill by the Senate—probably was the key roadblock.

The House conferees asked the House to vote backing for their stand.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois told newsmen that the House had attached too many strings to a sugar quota bill, asked by President Eisenhower to cut purchases from the Dominican Republic.

Asked by a reporter if the administration would prefer no bill to the one that came through the House, Dirksen said "You just can't operate under the House bill."

He said the outcome might be that no sugar legislation would be enacted.

Failure to get the 190 million dollars extra for foreign aid would be a sharp blow to President Eisenhower. The Senate put it into a supplemental appropriation bill after Eisenhower protested that the $372,350,000 provided by the regular foreign aid appropriation bill was too little.

He appeared likely to win on another foreign affairs front, however. The House agreed to take up a bill to authorize an extensive development program for Latin America. The Senate already has approved the bill, asked only this month.

With hope all but abandoned for a minimum wage bill this year the Senate-House dispute over the final money measure provided the last major hurdle to adjournment of the post-convention session.

An apparently hopeless deadlock developed over efforts to compromise differences over minimum wage legislation. House members rejected two more Senate compromise offers. No further meetings were scheduled.

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee who led the Senate conferees, pledged in a statement "to take this fight to the American people."

The conference broke up over how many additional workers should be brought under wage-hour law coverage. The two bills had differed also on how high to raise the present $1 an hour wage minimum.

The dispute over foreign aid funds was likely to be less bitter, although the Senate may be forced to back down on that.

Rep. Albert Thomas (D-Tex.), who led the House conferees on the money bill, said he is convinced "the House will not agree to vote this additional 190 million dollars of foreign aid giveaway." He said agreement was reached on other items in the $305,942,732 bill.

Truck Driver Hurt in Crash

James B. Hartley, 18, Route 2, Laurelville, suffered minor injuries when the truck he was driving crashed off Route 56 about eight miles southeast of here.

Hartley was taken to Berger Hospital for treatment of bruises.

The driver told Deputy Sheriff Homer Adams his truck crashed when he glanced at a dash instrument which was not working. He said he lost control when the vehicle veered off on the berm.

Deputy Adams said the truck careened into a ditch and rolled over. The vehicle was demolished, he said.

African States Jolt Congo Chief

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo—The conference of independent African states jolted Premier Patrice Lumumba today with a resolution calling for frank and loyal cooperation between the United Nations and the Congo.

Lumumba, who has described the United Nations as imperialist, harassed Secretary-General Hammarskjold and even called for the withdrawal of the U.N. force, sat in silence as the resolution was read in the conference hall.

The conference, which brought together delegates of 13 African states, wound up as Lumumba's government built up troop strength in neighboring Kasai province, apparently for an invasion of rebellious Katanga.

Lumumba had won one of his main demands. The United Nations announced that the last Belgian combat troops have quit the Congo, leaving only a few hundred technical specialists to look after the big treaty bases at Kamina, in Katanga; and Kitona, on the Congo River.

The conference expressed regrets at the incidents which have troubled relations between the Congo and the U.N.

The conference paid homage to the organization "for the work of peace it brings to the Congo." It praised U.N. for bringing about the withdrawal of Belgian troops and taking over the Kamina and Kitona bases.

The evacuation brought quick demands from Katanga's Premier Moise Tshombe that the U.N. turn control of Kamina over to him or he would block its runways with bulldozers, trucks and oil drums.

The United Nations wants the big base 360 miles northwest of Elisabethville neutralized and banned to all troops but those of the U.N. Tshombe, however, fears that U.N. forces will not prevent Lumumba's invaders from landing at the base and using it as the springboard for their campaign to establish Lumumba's authority in the province.

Lumumba returned to Leopoldville after a provincial tour. There was no indication whether, with the last Belgian combat troops gone, he would revive his earlier demands that the U.N. force also leave the country.

Showing he had taken to heart the counsel of leftist advisers, the Congo premier announced he had ordered a "profound reform of the ancient structure" of society in Oriental province. Territories formerly ruled by tribal chiefs would now become rural communities, he said. He also told of a decision to create peasant co-operatives to "mobilize all the economic and social program."

Ohio Asks Data On Care Plan

No Estimate Made On Local Effect

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio is awaiting detailed information on the new federal medical care plan before it can estimate its effect in this state. Welfare Director Mrs. Robert N. Gorman said today.

The director said she had asked Ohio's Democratic senators, Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young, to forward what information they had available on the legislation—sent to President Eisenhower by Congress Monday.

She also expects to receive a digest of the program from the American Public Welfare Association.

The plan is designed to aid 12,400,000 million Americans with their health costs. But the degree in which it will aid residents of the various states is expected to vary widely, and it will be up to the states to set up details of the operation.

Mrs. Gorman said Ohio is among the most advanced states in its medical care for the aged program, and thus possibly will not benefit as much as some states where little help is available now.

Mrs. Gorman said her office would not be able to evaluate the program for Ohio until all the details are studied and provisions of the plan examined in relation to Ohio's needs and eligibility.

DiSalle Seeks Power Shift To Local Level

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle told newsmen today he still believes the state should turn back to local governments all responsibility in fields where they can do a better job.

He made several such suggestions about 18 months ago—shortly after he took office—but the busy 1959 Legislature took no action.

The governor says now he still would like to see all responsibility for poor relief returned to local governments, including the taxing power to finance the relief program. His stand is directly opposed to that of the Ohio Municipal League which wants the state to take over the entire relief program.

DiSalle said he will confer with Municipal League officials before he is to address a noon meeting of the league in Cincinnati Sept. 21. He said he will seek agreement with league officials on local and state responsibilities in several fields.

"I would like to see the state government weaker in many areas—especially in the field of tax collection," DiSalle commented.

The governor indicated the 1961 session of the Legislature may be somewhat shorter than normal.

"We may have the state-of-the-state and the budget messages ready when the Legislature comes to town," he predicted. He 1961 session will start Jan. 2. "We also hope to have much of our legislative program ready."

Two Children Injured in Car Mishaps

Two youngsters, one on a bicycle, were injured here yesterday when struck by cars.

Bryan Weaver, 7, Route 4, suffered a laceration on the head when his bicycle was struck at 1:45 p. m. at Pickaway and Mount Sts. He was taken to Berger Hospital.

The car was driven by Eleanor Yates, 64, of 161 W. Mount St. She told Patrolman William Brungs she was turning west on Mount St. when the bike drove in front of her auto.

Tammy Jo Brigner, 3, of 154 E. Mill St., suffered contusions when struck by a car on E. Mill St. near Pickaway St. She was taken to Berger Hospital.

THE AUTO was operated by Ralph L. Beck, 71, of 116 E. Water St. He said he was traveling west on Mill St. He said the child ran in front of his car.

Sgt. Leroy Hawks and Patrolman Donald Adams investigated.

Shark Grabs Student Off New Jersey Coast

OCEAN CITY, N.J. (AP)—A terror-stricken man was hauled aboard a rescue boat Tuesday night screaming, "I've been bitten. I've been bitten by a shark."

Richard Chung, 25, a medical student, was swimming about a quarter mile off shore when the attack occurred.

Although his leg was bitten to the bone, doctors at Shore Memorial Hospital in nearby Somers Point listed Chung's condition as satisfactory and said he would not lose the limb.

Short Congress

to be sidelined until about Sept. 12.

Lodge will be free to devote his time to campaigning after his resignation as U.N. ambassador becomes effective this weekend.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty predicted Tuesday that Nixon and Lodge will be the winners in November, Hagerty addressing a gathering of GOP party public relations consultants and speaking on his own "as a seasoned political observer," predicted "a large break-through" for the Republican ticket two weeks before the end of the campaign.

Nixon was revamping his campaign plans from his hospital bed, dictating speech drafts and contacting party leaders by phone.

Far from the scene of the political battles, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev intruded with his views on Nixon and Kennedy. He said, "they are a pair of boots. Which is better, the right or left boot? It would be difficult to distinguish between them."

Traffic Court Handles 3 Cases

Traffic cases handled by Circleville Municipal Court today listed three drivers cited for violations.

Charles D. Graver, 28, Columbus, was fined $15 and costs for speeding at 65 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Edward L. Bosserman, 24, Ashville, paid $10 and costs for passing a red light.

Frederick Tice, 70, Huntington W. Va., forfeited a $44 bond for failure to have assured clear distance ahead.

The drivers were arrested by the State Highway Patrol.

Stock Mart Decline May Be Slowing

NEW YORK (AP) — he sock market arrested an initial decline and showed a mixed pattern in moderate trading early this afternoon.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among key stocks.

Dealings resumed in two stocks which have been swamped with orders, elautograph and Compotometer, both in tremendous demand because of their equipment for sending written messages via telephone.

elautograph, in which trading was halted for two full days prior to an 80,000-block just before Tuesday's closing bell, was delayed again for an hour and 18 minutes after today's market opening. It finally opened at 21½, off 2½ on a block of 25,000 shares. It pared the loss to a fraction in later dealings.

Comptometer, the most active stock Monday, could not be rated Tuesday because of a deluge of orders which exchange officials were unable to match. After an hour and 45 minutes of delay, it opened today on 65,000 shares, up 4½ at 28½, and boosted the gain to 5 in later trades.

After a series of trades in both stocks, trading was halted once more because of accumulations of buy orders.

In early trading, the market seemed headed for its fifth straight decline from the August top reached last week. As the session wore on, plus signs among a number of autos, aircrafts, utilities, rails, oils, nonferrous metals and selected issues helped balance gainers and losers pretty evenly. Price changes mostly ran from fractions to about a point. Of 60 stocks at noon was down 30 with the industrials off .50, the rails off .20 and the utilities unchanged.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 1.33 at 625.07. Corporate bonds were narrowly mixed. U. S. Government bonds advanced.

Deaths and Funerals

MR. GEORGE W. BROOKS

Mr. George W. Brooks, 92, Kingston, died at 8:45 p. m. yesterday at the Gospel Light Nursing Home, Chillicothe, after an illness of two years.

He was born August 10, 1868, in Meigs County, the son of James and Sarah Wyath Brooks.

Mr. Brooks was married April 23, 1901, to Sarah Reed Brooks, who died June 24, 1931. He had a son Russell Brooks who is deceased.

Mr. Brooks is survived by three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

He was married January 16, 1934, to Mrs. Sibel Kramer Brooks, who died July 18, 1948.

He is survived by three stepchildren, George and Richard Kramer, Kingston, Paul, Chillicothe and 11 step-grandchildren.

Mr. Brooks also is survived by a brother, Clint Brooks. He was a retired N&W Railroad and Village of Kingston employee.

Funeral service will be 2 p. m. Friday at the Hill Funeral Home, Kingston, with the Rev. Harold Cowdick officiating.

Burial will be in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 6 p. m. today.

Go-Karts Get Legal Viewers

Those involved in the current go-kart hearing in Common Pleas Court now have first hand knowledge.

Yesterday they went to the Pickaway County Fairgrounds to see and hear the miniature motor racers.

Residents of the fairgrounds area are seeking to ban go-kart operations at the fairgrounds. They say the little vehicles are noisy, dirty, cause confusion and are a nuisance.

Opponents, who are fighting a permanent injunction against use of go-karts, are the Pickaway County Agricultural Society (the fair board), and the Circleville been in public service for 42 years.

Today the hearing, which started Monday, again was recessed to allow the court to conduct other business. Judge William Ammer, who is hearing the case, said it will probably resume later today.

Harry L. Margulis, attorney for the Pickaway County Agriculture Society and the Circleville Go-Karts Club, asked for a recess yesterday in order that the court might go to the fairgrounds and see go-karts in operation.

Judge Ammer; Margulis; Emmitt Crist, attorney for petitioners opposing go-kart operations, and members of the fair board spent two hours at the fairgrounds and surrounding homes listening to the "noise" created by the go-karts.

Future River Pollution Tied To Electronics

CINCINNATI (AP) — Imagine the big American rivers of the future fitted with electronic gadgets to check on pollution and push-button machines to control flow and wastes.

Mark Twain might not recognize the scene, but that's the picture of the future river basin by a Public Health Service executive.

Gordon E. McCallum of Washington, D.C., chief of water supply and pollution control for the service, said Monday:

"We will have to manage water quality and quantity on those river basins in the same push-button manner that we now transmit and manage electrical power."

"Streams will be fully instrumented. A central computer will turn out the finished data."

McCallum spoke at a conference of scientists and health officials on water quality.

Harry G. Hanson, chief of Cincinnati's Taft Sanitary Engineering Center, said part of the problem is Americans will need 600 billion gallons of water daily by 1980 and 1,000 billion gallons by 2000.

Missing Plane Bodies Found By Lumbermen

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Two lumbermen stumbled across the wreckage of a light plane and four bodies in rough mountain country of Western Pennsylvania Tuesday.

The plane was identified as one that left Teterboro, N.J., Aug. 16 carrying four members of an Oklahoma City family.

They were Henry Griffing, 33; his wife Josephine, about 54; their daughter, Linda, 20; and son, Phillip, 24.

Police said the plane had struck the tallest tree on top of a ridge and crashed to the ground, apparently bursting into flames.

Two employees of a Bucktown lumber company came upon the plane while surveying timberland in a densely wooded area of northern Somerset County.

The bodies were found in the burned cabin. Wreckage was scattered more than 30 feet. Only the tail section was intact.

The discovery ended a wide-spread two-week search by the Civil Air Patrol and numerous volunteers in parts of West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Authorities said the plane, a Cessna 180 Skylark, left Teterboro bound for Oklahoma City about 11 a. m. Aug. 16. They said it probably crashed between 2 and 2 p. m. the same day.

The elder Griffing was president of Video Independent Theatres, Inc., which offered a $5,000 reward for locating the family.

Former Commissioner Visits Court House

Wayne A. Hoover, 81, Jackson Twp., visited the court house yesterday, fulfilling a long desire since he was confined to his home three years ago due to illness.

The 81-year-old Hoover is the father of Mrs. Marvine Rhoads, Pickaway County Auditor. He had been in public service for 42 years, serving eight years as county commissioner and 11 years on the County Board of Education.

Mrs. Tom Hickey, court house custodian, accompanied Hoover as he visited all of his old friends in every office of the courthouse.

Nazi-Inspired Boy Killed on New Spree

GADSDEN, Ala. (AP)—A Nazi-inspired youth who was slated to go before a grand jury in connection with an attempt to bomb a synagogue has been killed in an automobile accident.

Authorities said Jerry Hunt, 17, had been speeding back and forth in front of a junior high school and firing a shotgun from a window when the car crashed into a tree Tuesday.

The school band was drilling and Coroner Noble Yocum said Jerry, driving a taxicab owned by his father, apparently wanted to attract attention.

Jerry had been charged with two counts of assault with intent to murder in the synagogue incident March 25. He had been free on $10,000 bond.

Two Are Held For Bad Checks

Sheriff Says Money Involved Is $2,000

Two men accused of passing bad checks totaling at least $2,000 have been apprehended by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department.

Being held here are James R. Hanning, 32, Athens, and his brother, Richard H. Hanning, 27, Stewart, O. Deputy Dwight Radcliff said a third man allegedly involved has not been apprehended.

Deputy Radcliff said the men are accused of passing forged $91 check at a South Bloomfield tavern several weeks ago. He said they also may be connected with the issuance of bad checks totaling about $2,000 in the Columbus area.

Radcliff said the elder Hanning is wanted by Columbus Police for theft of a payroll check writer from a Columbus construction firm. He said most of the bad checks involved in the case were stamped by a check writer.

JAMES Hanning was picked up last week in Cleveland by police. The brother was apprehended in Athens.

10 New Polio Cases Reported

Ohio Total Raised To 33 for Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ten new polio cases were reported in Ohio in the past week, the highest single week total this year.

It brings the total number of reported cases in Ohio to 33 for the year, the State Health Department says.

The sudden surge is ironic, because it was at this point in 1959 that reported cases began running behind the 1958 totals for the first time. But James J. Papai of the department's Communicable Diseases Division pointed out that, even with a decline, 17 cases were noted in the comparable week of 1959 and 22 in 1958.

At this point last year, 122 cases had been reported in Ohio. In 1954, the last year before announcement of the Salk Vaccine, Ohio had 190 cases reported during this comparable week alone in late August.

The newest cases are in Clark County (two, both vaccinated, neither paralytic), Licking (one, not vaccinated, paralytic), Guernsey (one, not vaccinated, paralytic), Lake (one, vaccinated, paralytic), Portage (one, had two shots, paralytic), Scioto (two, not vaccinated, one paralytic, one not) and Van Wert (two, not vaccinated, one paralytic, one not).

The county-by-county total now is:

Cuyahoga 4, Medina 3 (with two deaths), Lucas 2 (one change of diagnosis to lead encephalitis, a brain inflammation), Licking 3, Van Wert 3, Erie 2, Clark 2, Scioto 2, Ross 1, Warren 1, Guernsey 1, Lake 1, Portage 1, Seneca 1, Franklin 1, Washington 1, Trumbull 1, Clermont 1, Muskingum 1 and Logan 1.

Small Voice Puts Juvenile Thief To Quick Flight

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A juvenile offender is somewhat shaken up today over his attempt to steal an automobile.

The car belonged to Mr. and Mrs. John Longstreit of Tallmadge. They parked it in the street while visiting friends in Ellet another suburb.

A 15-year-old boy took the auto and started to drive off. Minutes later there came a small voice from the back seat:

"Slow down."

The youth was so unnerved that he pulled the car into a school yard and took off on foot. Later he was taken into custody and held for juvenile authorities.

It seems the Longstreits' son, Jimmy, 3, had been sleeping in the back seat and was awakened when the car went into motion.

'Migrant Village' Seen Possible Aid to NW Ohio

By BETTY JANE FOULKES
Lima News Staff Writer

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—A "migrant village" may be the answer to the migrant problem in Ohio. Prosperous tomato and sugar beet crops are attracting more and more migrant workers into this area.

The proposed village would have a stone road, neatly aligned homes, sewage and water facilities, playground area, coin-operated laundries, bath houses, and perhaps facilities for some Spanish movies.

Their children could be taught together without being transported, and the parents could reach any of their field within 20 minutes from this centralized village.

Ohio has about 12,000 migrant workers who make the 2,000-mile trip from Texas every year to work in the tomato and sugar beet fields of northwestern Ohio. Putnam County is in the heart of this migrant area. There are 250 units varying from beet wagons, old chicken houses to various semi-modern homes housing around 3,000 acres of sugar beets and tomatoes.

Some of these homes are along side the fields and others are near the canneries where the families work.

Columbus Grove Cannery has some of the better housing units in Putnam County. The green-shingled homes are the center of activity for these migrants.

Ruby Herrera, a permanent employee of the cannery showed me around the homes. There I met people who were hospitable and anxious to discuss their way of life. Here is what they told me: They had left Texas because working conditions were very poor. Texans looked down upon the Spanish-American Indian people and passed them by to handle wetbacks from Mexico for wages ranging from 25 cents to 50 cents an hour. Competition was keen for these jobs. The Mexicans who have migrated to Ohio got only 55 cents an hour, while here in Ohio their wages run from $1 to $1.25 per hour.

The average home in Texas is about three rooms and many are in worse condition than Ohio shacks. There are no basements or second stories in their homes. Migrants working at the Columbus Grove Cannery found their living varied little.

Wilbur Macke of the Grove Cannery told me his families came to Columbus Grove voluntarily and he felt that he got the better workers and more cooperative people that way.

Large canneries and companies usually send a representative to Texas to recruit the workers. In this way the company gets all types of people and workers. Some companies have as much as $50,000 to bring these workers to Ohio. Once they begin coming they return every year and some of the people such as Rudy Herrera stay the year in Ohio.

Homer Estrada and his wife Remigia came to Ohio for the first time this year. They are making about $15 per day now while they are working at the Norbert Recker farm south of Ottawa, but they expect to make about $25 per day in the next couple of weeks.

The couple has three children who were with their parents while they were working the 11-acre tomato field. Their car is parked close by the field so the children could sleep while the parents worked. This family likes working in Ohio and they said they make more money in three months in Ohio than they would make in a whole year in Texas.

Harry Corkwell, representing the Ohio Migrant Workers Committee, asked the people where they lived, and they pointed to the woods nearby. He asked them what they thought of having a migrant village and they said "much better, ad we would be willing to pay some money for a better home."

The problem facing the migrant workers is something that cannot be changed overnight, said one cannery owner. He said that there have been many improvements throughout the years. He admits that they still have a long way to go but that such an operation will take education. The migrant workers cannot be educated unless he wants to be. Currently migrant schools are in operation in Leipsic and the Bluffton area.

Bulldozer Trapped In Man's Backyard

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP)—Jack Simpson has a bulldozer trapped behind a few strands of barbed wire in his back yard.

It will stay there, Simpson says, until someone pays for damage he claims the machine caused while it was being used on a sewer project.

The bulldozer's owner, Ambrosius Industries, Inc., wants the city to provide rights-of-way so it can move the machine.

The city plans to seek an injunction to force Simpson to remove his barricade.

migrant school of the season Aug. 15.

Some of the migrants take great pride in cleaning their homes and try to make them as livable as possible. Others do not care how they take care of their surroundings in the few short weeks they are here. Often when a person pays a little rent for something he will take better care of it than if it is provided free.

The reply of the industry to the proposed migrant village might be that it would be too expensive. The migrant committee is studying the possibility of a $15 rent per month to keep the houses in repair, and provides sewage, water and power.

The Ohio Migrant Committee under the chairmanship of Rep. Norman A. Fuerst of Cleveland will meet at Bowling Green State University on Aug. 29 and 30. There they will discuss further the plan of centralized migrant villages, travel through the tomato fields to see the migrant workers on the job, and discuss the education situation.

Reps. Corkwell of Ottawa and Harry Schwall of Wauseon are the only rural members of this committee. Corkwell has endorsed a resolution "that for all children of migrants who attend school a certification would be made weekly to the county superintendent of schools who in turn would certify it to the State Board of Education and the school would be reimbursed for the teaching of these children for a period of four or five weeks."

E. E. Holt, state superintendent of public instruction, reports that of the $75,000 set aside for educational purposes, only $25,000 would be used this year as it is a hard job to get these youngsters to go to school during vacation.

Much work has been done by social workers of Protestant and Catholic denominations. At Columbus Grove a social worker takes the children swimming in the afternoons at the local pool. Other similar projects are featured in the smaller camps.

Actress, 55, Avoids Boredom As 'Women's Worst Enemy'

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dolores Del Rio is making her first Hollywood movie in 18 years—playing Elvis Presley's mother, of all things.

How does she look? Fabulous. She has the same smooth face, the same waist-length auburn hair as when she played Ramona, Evangeline and Madame DuBarry. The record books show her to be 55.

How does she do it?

"I have no particular secrets," she said, "except perhaps that I am never bored. I think boredom is a woman's worst enemy. When she stops taking interest in what is going on around her, that's when she starts to grow old.

"I am too busy to be bored. I have my home in Mexico, I have my husband (stage and TV producer Lew Riley), whom I married last year. And I have my career.

"Actually, I have had four careers. The first was here in silent films; I started in 'What Price Glory' 34 years ago. The second career was talking films. I was really in trouble, because my English was very poor. But I took lessons and I survived, while most of the other silent stars disappeared."

She remained in Hollywood until 1942. After starring with Orson Welles in 'Journey into Fear,' she returned to her native land.

"I was unhappy with the kind of roles I was getting," she explained. "Also, I wanted to go home. Something happens to a person who lives too long in a foreign country. He becomes neither a part of the new country, nor of his own. A person needs to have an identity."

"My third career was in Mexican films. I started at an exciting time when the film industry down there was just beginning. It was a thrill to help it grow and to pioneer new markets in Europe and South America. Now it is a thriving business.

"The stage is my fourth career, and perhaps the most satisfying one. I started it only recently, and it was a real challenge to enter a new medium and to face audiences in different cities. I was playing 'Lady Windemere's Fan' in Buenos Aires when the call came for this picture."

This picture is "Black Star," and she plays an Indian as she did in so many Hollywood films. Presley is her half-breed son.

New Balloon Real Thriller

Ascension of a hot air balloon at the county fair 50 years ago was an exciting event, even though it may have been less than 50 feet in diameter and would overturn, spewing black smoke, at the height of a mile or so. In the meantime, it had usually carried a man dangling from a parachute, to be released at the proper moment.

Now the world has been thrilled for days by a super-ascension featured by a shiny balloon 100 feet in diameter, reaching not one mile but 1,000 miles, where it streaks through space (not air) as such a tremendous rate, in orbit, that it circles the earth 12 times in 24 hours.

The reason it can go so fast and maintain its terrific rate of propulsion is that there is no atmosphere — just a vacuum force counteracts the centripetal (gravitational) force, and if the technique is accurate it will go round-and-round indefinitely.

It can be seen by the naked eye, and it shines brightly. It will be of immeasurable value to all scientists, in all parts of the world.

Tomatoes Cause Red Troubles

When any given theory is wrong or unworkable, it has a way of seeping into the most unexpected places. For instance, it now appears that tomatoes, beets and cucumbers are causing headaches to those intrusted with the Marxian interpretation of government.

Man has an ancient tendency to putter around a garden. His instinct will not tell him, however, whether to curtail production of tomatoes or what-not.

Ivan found that he had too many tomaatoes but not enough to beset, so he sold tomatoes to buy beets. Likewise, Dmitri got tangled up in cucumbers. Vasili had some of each, but a surplus of certain items.

The commissars of tomatoes, onions and cabbage are now trying to stop this nefarious and illicit traffic in vegetables. Their theory is that it would be a bad deal if the Russian people found out for themselves that the capitalist system works best, after all.

Lady Sports Fan — a Problem

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Hardly a man today would deny women the right to vote.

But many thoughtful American men would avidly support — that and be counted — a constitutional amendment banning the mingling of sexes at sporting events.

There is a growing male feeling, if women insist on being interested in sports, they should have their own baseball and football major leagues, their own ice hockey teams, perhaps even their own fishing and hunting preserves — and certainly their own golf courses.

No men would be admitted as spectators to the ladies' league games, and—naturally—no women would be allowed at the men's league contests.

What has spurred this silent masculine demand for sex segregation in sports? The rise of the lady sports fan. She is the most dubious product of the modern equal rights movement.

Here is how she is viewed by some masculine sports addicts who, for reasons of their own—they're married—choose to remain anonymous:

"It was kind of cute thirty years ago to take a girl to a football or baseball game. She asked so many dumb questions it made a man feel superior," one recalled.

"But in a single generation the lady sports fan has graduated from a know-nothing to a know-it-all. She is an authority on everything—from Mickey Mantle's emotional weaknesses as a batter to Casey Stengel's psychological defects as a manager. She brings Freud to baseball.

"And she insists on giving her views out loud. Anybody who sits within shouting distance of two dames at a ball game has numb ears by the third inning."

Another man objected to lady sports fans on the ground they are too bloodthirsty.

"Actually, they are man haters at heart," he said. "Sometime earlier in life they figure some man gave them a raw deal, and they want to see all mankind punished. They want to see men hurt.

"At home they screech at the sight of a mouse. But they don't enjoy a boxing match until somebody gets a nose busted, or a football game unless the halfback breaks his leg.

"I got the real tipoff on women sports fans when I took one to a bull fight in Mexico. Who do you think she rooted for? The matador? Not her. She kept yelling 'Come on, bull! Get him, bull! Get him, get him, get him!'

"When the bull finally lost, she broke out crying, and said the whole thing was unfair."

What about it, lady sports fans? Are you really dogmatic, man-hating, possessive, and wildly obsessed with the determination you can beat a man at any game he chooses?

Is there really no chivalry left in the feminine bosom? Or are these men just cry babies?

World Court Is A Problem

By George Sokolsky

When the House of Delegates of the American Bar Assn. meets in Washington today, one of the questions before it will be the Connally Reservation.

Of course, the American Bar Assn. is not the Congress and its determination will be obiter dicta, but it will be influential. The lawyers will understand what a Reservation means and that is more than many who favor its discontinuance grasp. Great Britain and France have stronger Reservations than we have and there is no movement in those countries to revoke their Reservations.

At issue is only one question: Does the World Court or the United States decide what is a domestic question within the United States? The continuance or repeal of the Connally Reservation raises no other question. It does not withdraw our membership from the International Court of Justice. It does not lessen our interest in adjudicating international questions by judicial rather than military decision.

Those who favor the removal of the Reservation believe that the peace of the world can best be assured if all nations accept the World Court as the final arbiter of international issues. If the world were different than it happens to be, this could be the best device for reducing or avoiding wars.

There are now 82 members of the World Court. The membership will increase. Many of the members represent Soviet states and other anti-Western bodies. There are 15 judges in this Court, no two from any one country. The present 15 judges are:

Abdel Hamid Badawi, United Arab Republic; V. K. Wellington Koo, China; Sir Percy Spender, Australia; Jean Spiropoulos, Greece; Bohdan Winiarski, Poland; Jules Basdevant, France; Roberto Cordova, Mexico; Ricardo J. Alfaro, Panama; Sir Hersch Lauterpacht, United Kingdom; Lucio M. Moreno Quintana, Argentina; E. C. Armand Ugón, Uruguay; Green Haywood Hackworth, United States; Helge Klaestad, Norway; Muhammad Zafrulla

Khan, Pakistan; F. I. Jovjevikov, USSR.

It will take many years before the Court can work out a system of international jurisprudence that will not be based on local custom and tradition, but on written legislation. Meanwhile, we must maintain this one little safeguard, the Connally Reservation, to protect ourselves.

The Statute of the Court is a surprisingly ambiguous document. For instance, it deals with general principles of law as recognized by civilized nations.

What is a civilized nation? If Great Britain, the United States and Canada are civilized, are France, Soviet Russia and Saudi Arabia civilized? The systems of jurisprudence of these countries are not identical nor do they have a common source. Until there is an agreement as to which law is to prevail or if a new law is to prevail, how can any major nation leave its national security to a majority vote among representatives of nations who require obedience?

For instance, an American judge is not regarded as a traitor to his country if he renders a decision against it. Actually, in this country, we have a Court of Claims for precisely that purpose. Also, the ordinary courts often render decisions against the government and the United States Supreme Court even declares Acts of Congress signed by the President unconstitutional.

Is that possible under the Soviet system? May a Soviet judge disregard instruction from his government? Would not an American judge regard such an instruction as an invasion of judicial privilege?

Imagine bringing before a Court which makes decisions by a majority of those present, such a question as the seizure of American property in Cuba or the beating up of Canadian officials in the Congo! Only 14 nations have ever accepted the compulsory jurisdiction for a fixed period; without the Connally Reservation, the United States would accept such compulsory jurisdiction for a fixed period on all subjects. The United States, as the leading country on Earth, would be a perfect target for the weak and backward nations.

The real peril to the United States lies in the Asian-African bloc of nations which is playing for opportunity for growth. Out of 82 members, 29 are in the Asian-African bloc. It is expected that this number will increase to 43.

The day is not far distant when such a group can be a majority in the United Nations and that a majority of the judges on the World Court will be of the Asian-African group. Can we afford, in the present circumstances, to risk that?

TAKING A BEAD—A Sudanese soldier of the UN force in the Congo takes a practice sighting with his rifle from a foxhole at Leopoldville's airport. The UN took over the guard there because Congolese forces committed repeated "mistakes of identity," which caused clashes with UN forces landing at the field.

ONE OF Art Linkletter's more rueful memories concerns the time a lady in his audience wrote him a check for $225, payable to his favorite charity, for the privilege of smacking him with a vanilla cream pie.

"She let me have it, too," recalls Art, "square in the kisser. The next day her check bounced."

"Excuse me, folks," boomed a Texas host one day. "I must make a long distance phone call to my best gal."

"Back East?" inquired a guest.

"No," said the Texan. "Backyard."

Arthritis Fight Fruitless?

By Herman N. Bundesen, M. D.

Since a good many of us will be troubled by some form of arthritis as we grow older, let's get prepared to combat it as well as we can.

And let's face the facts. As yet we have no cure for this disease which has plagued mankind throughout history.

Usually, however, we can ease any pain and prevent disability, providing we seek medical help at the proper time.

The best way to combat any disease such as this is to know as much about it as we can. So let me explain a few things.

You're Telling Me!

A record 48 million students are expected to enroll in U. S. schools this year. On hearing of this, Junior says all he can think of is the billions of hours of homework this will total!

Forty-eight million school kids. And, to think, it all started with that little, old one-room red schoolhouse!

Daniel DeFoe wrote more than 30 books after he was 65 years old—Factograph's. There's a boy who could have used Social Security!

A Greek known as Milone of Cretone back in 500-something B.C. held the Olympic Games wrestling championship for seven straight Olympiads, that is 28 years—historical item. He sure had a good grip—on the title!

A group of Long Island skin diver harvested more than a half-million starfish. We'd say that's quite a galaxy!

This would have interested Bill Shakespeare who went around wondering what's in a name: There's an Easy Street in Security, Colo.

See by a sports page item that Waterbury Center beat Waterbury Village, 7-3, in a recent contest in Vermont. The sport—water polo, what else?

U. S. cigar makers are worrying that the trouble with Cuba may cut off their supply of choice Havana tobacco. The industry, it seems, fears it may become the butt of an international situation.

A Japanese fisherman reports he found a huge oyster which contained 620 pearls. That was no oyster—that was a subsurface jewelry shop!

An August heat wave and a January cold spell have one thing in common — they both last too long.

Many persons speak about rheumatism and arthritis interchangeably. Yet there is a difference.

Rheumatism, you see, is not one disease, but a whole group of disorders which affect the joints and the muscles.

Generally, we refer to mild aches and pains as rheumatism. We reserve the rest of the word arthritis for the more serious forms of joint inflammation.

There are different forms of arthritis, too, the most common types being osteo-arthritis and rheumatoid arthritis.

Osteo-arthritis is generally the result of aging and most persons over 60 have it to some degree. Although the joint cartilage degenerates, it usually is not disabling. It is, however, somewhat painful.

Rheumatoid arthritis is much more serious and, unfortunately, not as common as osteo-arthritis. It attacks three times as many women as men and usually strikes between the ages of 35 and 50.

It affects the joints, muscles and sometimes the eyes, heart, spleen and lymph glands. Crippling and deformity sometimes result from severe cases.

The symptoms to watch for are fatigue, loss of appetite and weight, general weakness, swelling in the joints and muscle aches and inflammation.

Although we have no scientific proof that arthritis is inherited, it does seem to run in families. So if there is history of arthritis in your family, see a doctor at the first sign of any symptom.

We have no scientific wonder drug to cure arthritis, but through the use of ACTH, cortisone and other related steroids and gold compounds we can often check swelling and inflammation to a dramatic degree.

Heat treatments with moist towels, tub baths or electric pads are usually advised to ease the pain of rheumatoid arthritis.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — This presidential campaign may exhaust the candidates, confuse the public, and even become the most bitter in history. But one thing is sure: it's going to be rough on the newspapermen covering it.

Already Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican candidate, is a casualty with an injured knee he banged against a car door while campaigning in North Carolina. He will be hospitalized perhaps two weeks.

A check on the plans of Nixon and his opposite number on the Democratic ticket, Sen. John F. Kennedy, gives an insight not only into the problems of the newsmen traveling with them but into their campaign techniques.

Both men sometimes will deliver prepared speeches—Kennedy more often than Nixon, who admits he'd rather talk off the cuff. This kind of campaigning is relatively easy to cover.

But both men will do a lot of whistle-stopping—short hops and quick talks off the cuff.

This means newsmen trying to keep up with them must take quick notes and write quick stories and, having written them, dash to a phone or telegraph office and then dash back to be sure they missed nothing.

In Nixon's case, particularly, it may be difficult on any given trip to find something new in what he says in each place.

This is because on one trip—which may mean speeches in three or four cities—he probably will limit himself to one or two or three main themes and repeat them all along the way.

This is what he did when, right after the Republican convention, he went to Reno, Los Angeles, Honolulu, three other Hawaiian islands back to Honolulu, and then to Seattle.

This business of repeating the same themes on any given trip may be interesting to each audience along the way. But it will be tough on the newsmen looking for a new lead at each stop.

Nixon is doing now what he did in the 1956 campaign. On his plane or train he finds time to sit down and talk frankly about his techniques and views with newsmen accompanying him. Kennedy doesn't go in for much of that.

Nixon has prepared newsmen for his method of repetition by telling them they may get a little tired of it. He will oversimplify, perhaps, but he has a reason for this, too—to get across a sense of what kind of man he'd be in the White House.

In the 1956 presidential campaign Adlai Stevenson used the "position paper."

From time to time during the campaign he would release—at great length and in great detail—a statement of his views on the major issues and how he would meet them if elected. These were prepared for him by experts in various fields. Sometimes Stevenson failed to follow up these statements of his views in his speeches.

He seemed to think everyone had read the "position papers"—which were too long for many papers to publish—and therefore apparently saw no need to dwell on them later.

Nixon, too, will issue "position papers" and then follow them up in speeches, although he may only touch on them in a general way.

Kennedy is not going to use any such technique, one of his top aides says.

He will outline his ideas in his speeches.

MRS. DALLAS EARL VALENTINE

Miss Clarabelle Whitten Weds Mr. Dallas Valentine

Miss Clarabelle Whitten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Whitten, Williamsport, became the bride of Mr. Dallas Earl Valentine, son of Mr. Clarence Valentine, Amanda, and the late Mrs. Valentine, at 7:30 p. m. August 20 in the Methodist Church, Williamsport.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. William McOmber, before an altar decorated with white mums, white gladioli and fern. Candles were placed at the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of chantilly lace over bridal taffeta. The basque bodice was designed with a scalloped sabrina neckline, long sleeves that tapered over her hands into tiny points. The bouffant ballerina length skirt was accented at the waistline with a satin sash, ending at the back with a butterfly bow and flowing streamers and featured a scalloped hemline. Her fingertip veil of French imported bridal silk illusion was caught to a princess crown of lace, encrusted with pearls and iridescents. The bride carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. David Crawford, Circleville, who served as matron of honor. She wore a light blue lace sheath dress with a satin cummerbund and light blue accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of petal lavender with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

sage of white carnations.

Gerald Valentine, Amanda, served as best man for his brother. The ushers were: Glen Hartsaugh, Circleville, and Glen E. Whitten, Williamsport, brother of the bride.

Miss Joanna Hunsinger provided the music on the organ.

A reception was held at the Williamsport parish house. Hostesses were: Mrs. M. E. Wiggins, Columbus, Miss Beverly Allan, Mrs. Glen Hartsaugh, Circleville, and Mrs. Harry A. Keller, Williamsport.

The bride chose for her going away dress a light blue sheath with white accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride was graduated by Williamsport High School and is now employed as a bookkeeper at Dunlap Co., Williamsport.

The groom was graduated by Amanda Twp. High School and is now employed at the DuPont Co. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Williamsport.

Juanita Hinton Feted At Bridal Shower

A bridal shower was given Sunday in honor of Miss Juanita Hinton, bride-elect of William Schleich, in the home of Mrs. Donald Cook, Williamsport, with Mrs. Vernon Bolender, assisting.

Those who attended were: Mrs. Raymond Schleich, Mrs. Emmett Hinton, Mrs. Frank LeMaster, Mrs. Clara Vaughn, Mrs. James Hulce, Mrs. Nelson Waliser, Miss Becky Collins, Mrs. Tom Cook, Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. Alfred Edens, Mrs. Herman Proehl, Mrs. Frank LeMaster Jr., Mrs. Charles Parks, Mrs. Leroy Kirk, Mrs. Orland Routh, Mrs. Cletus Kuhn, Mrs. Ruth Quincell, Mrs. Robert Arledge, Mrs. Harold Hinton, Mrs. Dan Hinton, Mrs. Kelly Hinton, Mrs. Glen Smith, Mrs. Damon Crosby, Mrs. Herman Hinton, Mrs. Elliott Hinton, Mrs. Clarence Peak and Mrs. John Dearth Jr.

The groom was graduated by Amanda Twp. High School and is now employed at the DuPont Co. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Williamsport.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Why the All-Fired Rush?

DEAR ABBY: About a year ago I heard that the wife of my former minister was very ill and fading fast. I've lost all contact with my friends in that city (I moved away) and want to know how I can find out if his wife is dead yet.

You see I am his age and have been widowed for several years. I have always thought this minister was the most wonderful man I had ever known and I can't get him out of my mind.

Can you tell me (1) How I can find out if his wife is dead yet?

(2) How I can let him know I am interested in him without appearing too forward?

INTERESTED: For information about your former minister I suggest you inquire of a mutual friend. There is no way a lady can let a man know she is "interested in him" without appearing forward, particularly when she is so "interested" she can hardly wait to bury his wife.

DEAR ABBY: We are four sisters. All married. When it comes Mother's Day, Father's Day or Christmas, we all pitch in and buy something real nice from the four of us.

One of the sisters has not been putting in her share for the last two occasions. She says, "Put my name on the card and I'll pay you later." She is not poor, and manages to have money for everything else. Should we skip her next time and put down our names and let our parents know how cheap she is?

SISTER: Dun the slow paying sister and be done with it. Why hurt your parents' feelings?

DEAR ABBY: Has anyone ever been secretly married by a Justice of the Peace and then had a church wedding without announcing they have been married already? That is my case. I would like to be married in a church by my own clergyman, but I have been married secretly for seven months. Would I have to tell anyone this if I preferred to keep it a secret forever?

SECRET BRIDE: I imagine many people have managed to keep a secret of this kind. It's your privilege.

DEAR ABBY: Regarding patients getting annoyed because they are made to wait in the doctor's office. A number of years ago I had an appointment for a check-up for my two young children. I waited and waited and waited, and the longer I waited the angrier I became. I later learned that three doctors had been working on a baby, trying to close an open safety pin without tearing the child's insides. Needless to say, if I am made to wait in a doctor's office now, I never say a word. I read a magazine.

If you want a personal reply from Abby, write to her in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. She answers ALL letters.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schliech and family, Grove City and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cupp, Kansas.

Brown Couple Honored at Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown Stella Ave., were given a farewell party recently by the members of the Circleville Gospel Center. Forty-five guests assembled in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benis Lutz, South Bloomfield, for the occasion. The pastor, the Rev. Spurgeon Metzler, made the presentation of gift to the honored couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown will leave soon for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will serve the Oriental and Inter-American Missionary Society whose offices are at 850 Hobart Boulevard. Ever since Mr. Brown toured South American countries, he has felt inspired to give his time and efforts to the cause of Christian missions.

The Oriental and Inter-American Missionary Society was organized in 1901 by the Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Cowman for the purpose of forwarding missionary gifts to the field with the minimum of organizational machinery. Out of every dollar given, ninety-six cents actually reaches the field for which it was intended. Today the society supports missions in thirteen countries around the world and is growing year by year.

Interest Rates Hold Key to Stock Prices

Wall Street Traders Claim Fluctuations Give Certain Clues

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Cross currents in interest rates are being watched closely in Wall Street — almost as closely as the edging of stock prices in a market that can be interpreted in various ways depending on what part of it you are watching.

Stock traders watch the interest rates up and down seeking a clue to where stocks may be going.

Earlier in the year, short-term interest rates turned weak and money became definitely easier. This was partly due to the slack trend in business and partly to a change in policy by the Federal Reserve Board.

Easier money spread to long-term issues, such as corporate bonds, and their yields fell as their prices rose. Stocks looked more attractive.

But while money turned easier and interest rates fell elsewhere, bank charges on loans to business held rigidly at 5 per cent and higher.

Then the banks gave in at last to federal prodding and brought their lowest charge down to 4½ per cent. They did so as short-term interest rates, led by yields of U.S. Treasury bills, were rising and showing every sign of continuing to rise for a good part of the time in the next month or two at least.

The bank rate cut also came when interest rates were rising in Western Europe — causing a spread that tempts some investment money to leave the United States.

Some of the cross currents in interest rates can be explained by seasonal trends. But some is due to a change in borrowing habits.

This makes it all the harder to evaluate the effect on business of the lowering of bank charges on loans. Theoretically, this should lead corporations to borrow more, at the lower rates, and expand their activities. This would give the economy the desired push off dead center.

But many observers aren't so sure that there will be very much of a shove this time.

Business may not want to borrow more, even at lower rates. It depends on how fall prospects shape up.

And many firms can still find cheaper money outside the bank. They have been issuing commercial paper backed by their own credit records. Or they've turned to the long-term bond market as interest costs fell.

And many corporations have been able to raise needed money for every-day activities within their own business, as depreciation write-offs rose, as earlier expansion plans were shelved or a time and as cost cutting schemes took hold.

Rybolt Stock Left To Son of Founder

CINCINNATI (AP)—Clifford E. Rybolt, late president of Rybolt Heating Co., left to his son Clifford Jr. his stock in the firm and in Rybolt Heater Co., of Ashland, Ohio, under a will filed in Probate Court Tuesday. The senior Rybolt who died Aug. 20 at age 86, also left personal and household items to his son, named executor.

After $8,000 in bequests, the rest of the estate was earmarked for a trust for benefit of his daughter-in-law Mary Grace Rybolt, and grandchildren. Size of the estate was not estimated.

Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes had no fear of death. "When he comes," he told his secretary, "he will look like an old friend."

Khrushchev Hints Deal for Japan

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has raised the possibility that the Soviet Union might return the southern Kurile Islands to Japan if Japan breaks its alliance with the United States and becomes a "truly neutral nation."

Khrushchev made the suggestion Monday to a visiting delegation from Japan's Socialist party, telling them the Soviet Union might "reconsider its position" on the islands north of the Japanese island of Hokkaido.

E. R. BENNETT

E. R. Bennett New President Of Kiwanis

E. R. (Tom) Bennett is the new president of the Circleville Kiwanis Club.

President Bennett was elected to the top post Monday during a regular dinner meeting at the Mecca Restaurant. He will assume his new duties in January.

Two other officers elected Monday are Truman Eberly, vice president, and Charles Hart, secretary. New directors named are Frank Gill, Ralph Starkey and David Hoffman.

President-elect Bennett succeeds Bertus C. Bennett who will finish his term in December.

THE meeting was attended by several members from the Southern Club of Columbus.

Guest speaker for the evening was George Hamrick, Pickaway County agriculture extension agent. His talk was based on the "55 Billion Scandal."

Hamrick described the many problems faced by farmers dealing with surpluses and subsidies. He told of the huge investments in agriculture and the difficulties farmers have in realizing a return for their money.

A Roundtable was announced for Monday Labor Day. A Directors meeting will be held September 7 in the home of Frank Marion, 217 N. Scioto St.

President Bennett said a Kiwanis Division Council meeting will be held at Ricardo's in Columbus on September 12. The Kiwanis Convention will be an event for September 18 at Cincinnati.

Program for the next regular meeting will be presented by Ralph Starkey and Robert Temple concerning the Kiwanis Youth Camp conducted this summer.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Thundershower activity shifted to the eastern section of Ohio Tuesday night and continued widely scattered during today's early morning hours.

Meanwhile, clear skies and light northerly winds combined to produce heavy fog over the eastern half of the state.

At dawn, temperatures were some 10 degrees cooler in the northern section than those of Tuesday morning, while there was little change in temperature south.

Toledo had 59, Cleveland 62, Columbus 67 and Cincinnati 71.

High pressure paralleled the eastern third of the country this morning from Maine to Florida. Wind circulation from this high will continue warm and humid conditions over Ohio tonight and Thursday.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average 6-10 degrees above normal. Normal high 80 north to 82 south, normal low 69 - 70. Little temperature change throughout period. Rainfall will total less than 1 inch in scattered showers about Monday.

Cincy Trucking Firm Buys Chicago Company

CINCINNATI (AP) — Wilson Freight Forwarding Co. of Cincinnati has bought Interstate Dispatch Co. of Chicago for $1,500,000.

Lone Bandit Holds Up Columbus Loan Firm

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A man dressed in blue denim and a red-billed cap robbed the Economy Savings & Loan Co. at a North End shopping center and fled in a stolen car Tuesday, police said. The car was recovered a few minutes after the robbery about four blocks from the scene.

Pointing a revolver at Mrs. Emily King, a cashier, the robber said, "I want your money," police related. Mrs. King said she reached in a drawer and handed him its contents. Amount was undischarged.

Federal Payroll Shows Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's civilian payroll, already more than a billion dollars a month, rose another 307 million dollars for the year ended June 30.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), noting that pay increases for government workers effective July 1 were not included, predicted another climb in total payrolls during the current year.

A report of the Senate Committee on Reduction of Non-essential Federal Expenditures, which Byrd heads, said last year's civilian payroll totaled $12,637,000,000 not counting 268 million paid to foreign nationals employed in overseas installations. The year's total included an estimated 64 million dollars paid during the year to temporary census workers.

Conservancy Group Seeks To Save Wilds

Do you know about Nature Conservancy, the organization dedicated to preservation of natural areas to be used as living museums and classrooms?

Biologists and naturalists say that time is running out on us. They maintain that if we do not preserve certain key areas, forests, alpine meadows, prairies, peat bogs, savannahs, cane brakes and cactus covered deserts these places will be lost to us forever.

And why? Because our people are growing in numbers and spreading out over the land. Farms have joined farms. Cities have developed from towns. Thriving industries have multiplied. The wilderness has given way.

If natural areas are not preserved within this generation few if any will remain. They will go! The bulldozer, the plow, the drainage ditch and the chain-saw will take over.

NATURE CONSERVANCY was designed as an action organization to save a few key areas.

Now these areas naturally are not to be playgrounds nor picnic spots. Hordes of visitors would, in fact, defeat the very purpose of Nature Conservancy.

Rather, they are field laboratories. The plants and animals that live within these natural areas provide raw materials for biological studies. They are living store-houses of scientific treasures.

They are the last sanctuary of many plants and animals facing extinction. These preserved natural areas will enable them to propagate in their natural habitats.

In 1917 Nature Conservancy began its work as a national committee of the Ecological Society of America. In 1946 this committee organized as an independent group. In 1950 it adopted its present name.

Representatives, chapters and local committees help carry on Nature Conservancy activities within local areas. Membership dues are shared with chapters, 70 per cent going to the local organization.

Annual membership is $3. Life membership is $100. For information write The Nature Conservancy, 2015 Bunker Hill Road, N. E., Washington 18, D. C.

New Marigold Named Hawaii

David Burpee, seed grower of Lompoc, California, and Philadelphia announced today that he has named a new American Marigold with odorless foliage and sweet scented flowers "Hawaii" in honor of the first anniversary of Hawaii as our 50th State.

Hawaii Marigold, new for 1961, has delicately scented flowers of a rich orange color. Plants are 18 in. tall and gaily covered with beautiful flowers with long stems for cutting.

To help celebrate the first anniversary of Hawaii as our 50th State, Burpee sent today 2 large boxes of "Hawaii" Marigolds by Pan-American Airways to Governor William Quinn in Honolulu.

In a wire to Governor Quinn today, Burpee said, "You and the people of Hawaii are doing a magnificent job in creating good will and understanding between the peoples of the Orient and the United States."

American Marigolds are known as the flowers of friendship, and the Hawaii Marigold, according to Burpee, is the biggest and best Marigold ever created with sweet scented flowers and odorless foliage.

Time To Move House Plants

If your houseplants have been vacationing outdoors this summer the first week in September is the time to lift the plants from the ground.

Lay plants on their sides so you can spray for insects thoroughly reaching all the under leaves. Hose and scrub off dirt which has clung to the pot.

Prune off any wild or unwanted growth. Now your plants are ready for another winter indoors.

Garden Gossip

Mr. and Mrs. George Huskey and their four children took off for their new home in Darlington, S. C., last week. Hitched on to the family car was a little trailer with the two Huskey dogs, the big white kitty-cat and all the Huskey houseplants and the garden plants that Mrs. Huskey felt would thrive in South Carolina.

Mrs. Huskey did not take her tuberous begonias. She left them with Gladys Hedges, her neighbor at Route 1, Laurelville. Mrs. Hedges said she planted the uprooted begonias in a porch box on the north side of her house and they are growing just as though they had spent the entire summer there.

Mrs. Huskey, a graduate horticulturist, contributed articles to the Garden Page of The Circleville Herald, from time to time.

Mrs. Huskey liked plants and animals equally well. This is a rather uncommon trait, we think. We feel it's mighty difficult to be calm and love the brute when the dog has laid down in the tulip bed. But Daisy seemed to take gongs-on like this in her stride.

One kitten, the black and white, disappeared about the time the Huskeys were departing and was not present for roll call when the caravan departed. George plans to ship the kitten to South Carolina when he comes back to Circleville on DuPont business.

A CHAT with Mrs. Lewis Jenkins at 344 Watt St. revealed the sad news that the Jenkins roses have been bothered with blackspot this year. Mrs. Jenkins says that all their rose-growing friends are having the same trouble. We told her to check with M. E. Noggle about his success with Phalthan.

Mrs. Jenkins says her husband got tired of digging and storing dahlias tubers every all and gave every last tuber away.

Dahlias are hard to dig and store over. No wonder Lewis Jenkins decided to give them up when he has so many other garden specialties.

But Mrs. Jenkins misses the dahlias and declares she has every intention of getting some tubers next spring. She's going to help her husband with the tubers after this. She says she always wanted to help anyway but Lewis felt she wouldn't do it right.

Yvonne Drake, Route 1, Laurelville, has a nice show of roses now as well as zinnias, celosia and marigolds. Yvonne made a new flower bed in the back yard this year.

Hazel Schaal's garden, which rarely gets planted until after school is over will be in full bloom from now until after chrysanthemum time. rs. Schaal plants flowers in rows in the garden and the effect is very lovely.

Pickaway Garden Club sent a fleet of station wagons loaded with plant material to the Ohio State Fairgrounds Thursday. Members have been growing caladium plants all summer for this garden which the club plans and plants for the fair.

Going up Thursday to arrange plant material in the display garden were Mrs. Schubert Measander, Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Guy Campbell, Mrs. F. W. Anderson, Mrs. David Craven and Mrs. James Moffitt.

Displaying niche arrangements at the state fair Sunday were Mrs.

Thompson, Mrs. Moffitt, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Turney Pontius, Mrs. William Defenbaugh and myself.

THE TIME for the water pageant at our pond has been changed to 5 p. m. Labor Day. That will give us time for the pageant and the basket supper before dark.

The water pageant is invitation-al. Everybody's invited who doesn't mind sitting on the grass. We'll have the grass cut for the occasion but we're far too busy rehearsing the pageant to get the weeding done in the flower garden.

The pageant is based on Lord Tennyson's "Lady of Shalott" and Patty Strous is the Lady of Shalott. Lynn Justice takes the part of the Lady of Shalott as a child.

Other big drawing cards in the cast will be Paul Ford McGinnis who takes the part of Sir Lancelot, Forrest Kreisel, who is King Arthur and Skipper Hanson who plays the Lord Mayor of Shalott.

Allen Gabriel is an important swimmer in the pageant. Last week when his mother, Mrs. Alfred Gabriel called on him she brought a superbly grown Arthur Godfrey dahlia. A prize winner if we ever saw one.

Dr. Joe Goeller, Route 4, says he hasn't fiddled in the garden for a couple of years now. How well we know! Nobody misses Joe's wonderful garden of annuals more than I do.

But Dr. Goeller is having lots of fun and rather good luck propagating woody plants. The purple beech at Alice Ada May's house is the one exception. He's trying to air-layer it now and has high hopes.

Dr. Goeller sent for a bulletin from the Massachusetts College of Agriculture, Amherst, Mass., on propagating woody plants. This bulletin gives directions for propagating some 50 shrubs and trees.

ONE VERY interesting thing that Joe told us is that certain plants of identical varieties are different when it comes to propagation. One plant will propagate easily. Another plant, apparently identical, will be difficult.

Joe is very scientific. He carries a package of rosetone in his shirt pocket so it will be handy. If the plant is said to be acid loving he uses lots of peat moss.

Dr. Goeller once had a night blooming cereus which he treated with great care. He watered it. He fed it. It never bloomed. Finally Dr. Goeller said "to heck with you" and put the thing in hard dry ground on the sunny side of his house. It started picking up right away and one summer it had 40 blooms. "In short," advises Dr. Goeller, "if you want your night blooming cereus to blossom treat it real mean."

Thrips Can Cause Balling of Roses

According to Foster Franks, horticulturist-in-charge at the Columbus Park of Roses thrips cause the "balling of roses". These insects about one-sixteenth of an inch long can be easily seen scurrying among the petals.

If thrips are present in sufficient numbers they will cause roses to fade and wither before they completely open out.

Both Lindane and Malathion are effective in combating thrips provided the spray material gets into the bud.

Fall Unsafe For Anemones

Better To Wait Until Springtime

We checked recently with Edward Gottlieb and Associates on fall planting of French anemones. Much of the publicity for Dutch bulb growers is done from this office.

Only in the southern states is it considered safe to plant anemone bulbs in the fall. North of Washington, D. C. bulbs would require winter protection.

It is better to wait until spring and treat the bulbs as annuals. Then dig and store roots over winter.

Digging and storing is always a chore gardeners dislike. But there you have it from the experts!

MRS. EMMANUEL Schaal took a chance and planted her anemones in the fall with excellent results. And I'm going to try all planting. But you're taking a chance if you fall-plant in this locality, according to Edward Gottlieb and Associates.

The same thing is true of ranunculus, another of the very lovely spring flowering bulbs. We hope Mrs. Schaal will experiment with these too some time.

Local Rose Experts Rate Top Varieties

A 16-member panel of local rose experts has given its verdict of the roses giving the best performance during the summer of 1960.

They examined 425 varieties each week. Points considered were: 1. Quality and quantity of bloom (Substance), 2. Quality and quantity of foliage, 3. Resistance to insects and diseases, 4. Growth habit, 5. Fragrance.

The 25 best hybrid teas were: Chrysler Imperial, Charlotte Armstrong, Peace, Crimson Glory, Rubaiyat, Tallyho, Curly Pink, Rex Anderson, Eclipse, Mission Bells, New Yorker, Mirandy, Sutters Gold, Volcano.

Diamond Jubilee, Helen Traubel, Kaiserin Aug Victoria, Mme. Jos. Perraud, Mrs. Pierre DuPont, Opera, Burnaby, Mojave, Show Girl, McGredy Sunset, The Doctor.

THE 15 best floribundas were: Spartan, Floradora, Chatter, Else Poulsen, Fashion, Red Pinocchio, Red Ripples, Betty Prior, Nearly Wild, Imp. Lafayette, Pinocchio, Baby Blaze, Frensham, Masquerade, Vogue and Independence.

The best grandifloras were: Dean Collins, Carroussel, Buccaneer and Queen Elizabeth.

Grape Ivy Fine Indoor Plant

Grape ivy, (Cissus rhombifolia) is one of the easiest and most graceful of indoor vines. It grows rapidly in a window with morning sun if it is fed and watered regularly. If you like, a small pot trellis will make a good support on which it can twine.

Try a small plant in a two-inch pot or buy several plants and transplant them to an eight-inch pot for a really striking indoor decoration.

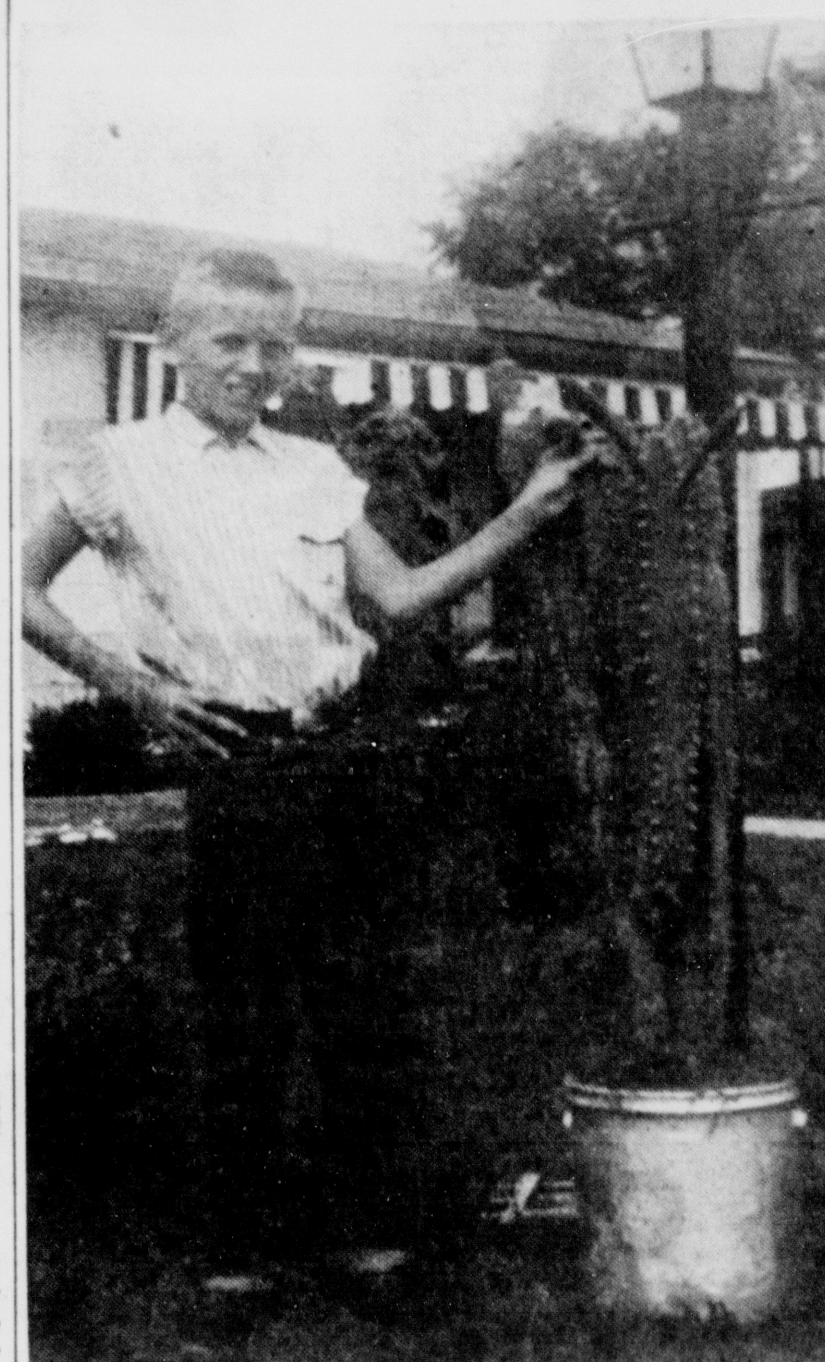

The 1961 All - America Rose Selections set a precedent in that this marks the first year since 1949 that no floribunda has been honored. Duet, a 1961 AARS winner, is the third hybrid tea honored in the last eight years. Pink Parfait, also a 1961 AARS winner, is only the third grandiflora winner in 20 years.

11-Year-Old Local Boy Has Strange Pet — a Spiny Cactus

Fyffe and Friend

Eleven-year-old Mike Fyffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dessel Fyffe, 405 Ruth Ave., has a pet cactus. It was given him by his grandmother and makes care for the plant winter and summer. In winter it stays in Mike's room. In summer it lives in the yard.

Recently the cactus bloomed. Its blossom is white with a pale green center and many stamens. It is so exotic a flower that neighbors are interested and watch for the buds to open. The flower blossoms at night and closes in the morning.

When we talked to Mike the cactus had bloomed three different nights and had nine more buds. Mike thought that it had more blossoms this year because he had read in The Circleville Herald that a cactus bloomed more if pricked with a needle. He pricked his.

The cactus has spines about an inch and a half long. Once during the winter Mike was roughhousing around the room with his brother and accidentally fell on the cactus. "It really hurts," he says, "when you jab one of those needles in yourself."

Mike plans to keep his cactus in his room again this winter. Sometimes a side shoot starts from the

Hedges Garden Proves Late Planting OK if Rains Right

Mrs. Raymond Hedges, Route 1, Laurelville, said to her husband "I'm going to have me a flower garden right where that old building was that you tore down."

And sure enough a few months later in the very spot where the old building used to be is a flower garden.

It was rather late in the season when Mrs. Hedges planted her seed.

And she crossed her fingers when she did it. "But we had lots of rain," Mrs. Hedges said, "and the flowers just did fine."

MRS. HEDGES said she just took all the seeds in the old packets in a certain drawer — "Just emptied the drawer."

Right now there are pink petunias, snapdragons, cosmos (in the background), four o'clocks, daisies, blue salvia and Janet Hedges' pansy plant.

This garden is proof that it pays to take a chance on planting seeds late. It was particularly profitable to do so this summer when rains came just at the right time.

Outplacement Need Cited In Job Field

CINCINNATI (AP) — "Outplacement" is what the Navy calls efforts to help civilian workers find other jobs when their old ones are abolished. And a Navy spokesman says he expects more need for outplacement.

Rear Admiral R. E. Cronin, Navy chief of industrial relations, today told the convention of the American Federation of Government Employees:

"Budgetary limitations and changing technology will undoubtedly continue, as they have in the past, to cause reductions in force."

He said the Navy has turned up some workable techniques to help displaced employees find jobs via other nearby service installations government job agencies and similar recognized channels.

"A first step," he said, "is to give the outplacement effort the status of staffing of a major program within the activity's industrial relations department."

Monday, the federation urged Congress to act before adjourning on bills aimed at bettering federal workers.

Pending measures would increase travel allowances, allow retirement after 30 years with full benefits and give auto liability coverage to drivers.

Youngstown Named To Nixon Committee

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Volunteers for Nixon-Lodge today announced that John A. Coakley Jr. of Youngstown has been named to the executive committee of the organization. The committee will spearhead the drive to enroll thousands of Ohioans, regardless of their political affiliations, in support of the Nixon-Lodge presidential ticket, said Dr. Clyde E. Williams of Columbus, chairman of the organization.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:

High Cost of Accidents

- Premature Greying
- Blackstrap Molasses

Q. I have three children, all less than 5 years old. Hardly a week goes by without one or the other getting hurt. I know there is no such thing as "anti-injury" medicine but surely something can be done—but what?

A. Eternal vigilance on the part of parents and other adult members of the family is probably the only sure way to reduce the drain on health, happiness and pocketbook that results from childhood injuries.

Q. What causes premature greying of the hair?

A. Greying of the hair is accepted as a sign of aging but this neither answers the question nor helps us understand the process. The cause is unknown. A doctor examined almost 4,000 dark-haired persons ages 9 to 92 and concluded that the greying process starts in childhood and continues throughout life. However, it is usually not until men reach 30 to 34 and women 35 to 39 that the greying process becomes rapid. An interesting sidelight is that eyebrow greying precedes eyelash greying in men whereas the reverse is true for women.

Q. I use blackstrap molasses because they say it contains a lot of iron. Is this true? What is it good for?

A. Blackstrap molasses is the final liquid end product in the manufacture of sugar and is used principally by fermentation industries and as cattle feed. Although such molasses is a good source of iron and calcium, nutritional authorities say that it does not have the special or mystical properties claimed for it by some food faddists.

American Loop Fans See Some Rare Baseball

Chicago, Washington Score 20 Runs in Last Three Innings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It will be a long time before American League fans forget Tuesday night.

In Washington, there was a wild, whacky 10-inning spectacular in which the White Sox and Senators scored one run between them in the first seven innings and 20 runs in the next three. Chicago won 11-10.

In Boston, the Red Sox took both ends of a two-night doubleheader from Detroit after 7½ hours and 25 innings. Boston won the opener 5-4 in 15 innings and the second game 3-2 in 10 innings. Boston's Pete Runnels went on a batting rampage with nine hits. Boston Manager Mike Higgins also went wild, charging out to the mound to square off with Jim Bunning after the Tiger pitcher had beamed Don Buddin with a pitch.

In New York, a torrential rain and flash floods kept many would-be Yankee Stadium customers home, but those who made it saw the Yankees rally in the ninth to defeat Kansas City 3-2 and maintain their 1½ game lead over Baltimore.

Only in Baltimore there was no untoward incident as the Orioles whipped the Indians 4-1.

In the National League, Pittsburgh defeated Los Angeles 5-2. Milwaukee shut out St. Louis 10-0. San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 2-1 and Chicago shaded Cincinnati 5-4.

For seven innings in Washington, the fans saw a tight pitching duel between the White Sox' Frank Baumann and the Senators' Pedro Ramos. Washington led 1-0 at the end of seven.

Chicago took a 2-1 lead in the eighth on two walks and singles by pinch-hitter Ted Kluszewski. Roy Sievers and Minnie Minoso. Washington bounced back with four runs in its half, three coming on Jim Lemon's 31st home run.

The White Sox roared back with five runs in the ninth. Minoso's three-run homer giving them a 7-5 lead. Washington tied it on Billy Gardner's two-run blow. In the 10th, Nellie Fox doubled home two runs and Gardner's wild throw gave Chicago two more for an 11-7 lead. The Senators bounced back with three runs on a double by Bob Allison a triple by pinch-hitter Julio Becquer and a home run by Lennie Green.

Runnels' sixth hit, a double in the 15th, scored Frank Malzone with the winning run for Bos'on in its first game. A throwing error by Tiger shortstop Chico Fernandez permitted pinch-hitter Tom Brewer to score the winning run in the 10th inning of the second game. Rocky Colavito had tied the score in the 10th with his 27th home run for Detroit. Runnels added three hits in the nightcap to tie Chicago's Al Smith at .324 for the batting lead.

In the seventh inning of the second game Buddin was hit on the forehead by loser Bunning's pitch. That brought Higgins racing out of the dugout to charge Bunning with deliberate beating.

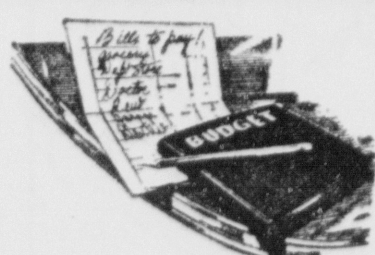

Three ex-Kansas City players starred in the Yankee victory. With the score tied 2-2 in the ninth, Joe DeMaestri, traded by the A's to the Yankees last winter, singled and was sacrificed to second. Hector Lopez, another ex-Athletic, singled DeMaestri home with the winning run. Cletis Boyer, still another old KC player, drove in the first two Yankee runs with a home run, his 12th.

Chuck Estrada, 22, Baltimore's rookie right-hander, handcuffed the Indians with four hits for his 15th victory.

Late Monday Loop Under Way Here

The Monday Nite Late Bowling League started its winter season this week at Circle "D" Recreation. The league will be scored on the point system this year. A point will be given for each game won and a point for the high three games against opponents.

There was no real scoring on pinfall this week. Jerry Bender had a 213 game and a 548 series. Top Hat had high team game with an 805 and Hoover's Music was high for three games with 2,275 pins.

Booster Club Eyes Drive For Membership Saturday

The Circleville Booster Club will launch its Annual Commercial Membership Drive here Saturday. Booster members, officers and directors will head the drive. Additional help will come from Circleville varsity and junior high graders and members of the coaching staff.

The campaign participants will be divided into groups to make a canvass of the city. A followup drive will be conducted September 10.

Main goal of the campaign is to seek financial aid for the Booster Club sponsored junior high football program, organized for the first time here this year.

THE club already has ordered and received uniforms and equipment for the program. The total cost is about $1,000 and Booster members hope most of the money

Seven Speedy Trotters Go in MARA Debut

Seven of the nation's fastest 4-year-old trotters have entered in the $8,000 HTA Trot, scheduled as the feature attraction Friday night when MARA, the Mid-America Racing Association, opens its 40-night meeting at Scioto Downs.

The MARA trotting classic is the fifth leg of the touring HTA trotting series which concludes at Roosevelt Raceway in New York September 24 with a $50,000 finale. Sponsored by the Harness Tracks of America, the finale will be contested by the top 10 point earners.

Early pre-race choice for the MARA lid-lifting event is Air Record, a beautiful brown daughter of Bombs Away, owned by her driver the diminutive George Sholty and F. E. Ross of Milan, Mich.

The easy gaited trotting mare earned the pre-race tag by virtue of her past performance in the trotting series, having won the two previous legs at Monticello Raceway and Batavia Downs. The latter was timed in 2:02 2-5.

AIR RECORD is Sholty's bid for fame in the sport of harness racing. After Ross purchased her from the Castleton Farm of Lexington, Ky., he gave Sholty a half interest. Since that time the partners have turned down an offer of $50,000.

It won't all be easy street for Air Record at Scioto Downs. Her chief tormentor, Ciro, from the powerful Billy Haughton stable is one of the seven entries, and the big stallion owned by the Ruderman Stable of Gouverneur New York is seeking revenge for an earlier defeat at Batavia.

Bantam Champion Is Knocked Out

JUAREZ, Mexico (AP)—Eloy Sanchez of Juanaquato, Mexico, knocked out World Bantamweight Champion Jose Beccera in the eighth round of a non-title bout Tuesday night while 18,000 fans screamed.

The knockout came at 2:51 of the eighth round after a series of lefts and rights to the head. The champion dropped on his back and rolled over once during the count.

It was the third trip to the canvas for Beccera who had gone down for eight counts in the fifth and sixth rounds.

Beccera announced after the bout that this was his last fight and that he would not defend his championship.

can be raised through commercial and individual memberships.

Another Booster project near completion is an information pamphlet on this year's Tiger grid squad. It is hoped the brochure will be finished by Friday Night's Band Mothers' Preview.

19 To Start In Hambletonian

Purse of $144,590 Awaiting Trotters

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Nineteen of the world's fastest 3-year-old trotters, with Uncle Sam and Elaine Rodney cast as favorites, awaited the bugle call for today's running of the $144,590 Hambletonian — richest harness race in history.

Hot and humid was the race day forecast.

The field of four fillies and 15 colts was spotted with strong contenders for the record winners purse of $85,019. But Uncle Sam and Elaine Rodney were regarded as the top choices for the 35th renewal of the sulky classic — the Kentucky Derby of harness racing.

A number of trackside observers predicted a record-breaking performance on the fast one-mile clay track of the Du Quoin State Fairground. Emily's Pride's 1:59 4-5 Hambletonian record was set in 1958 on the bettess Du Quoin track.

Uncle Sam, with a 1:59 3-5 clocking in pre-Hambletonian competition, has been pronounced ready for the first heat post time, 2:30 p.m. (CDT).

The bay colt suffered a bruised front foot in a race last week. However, driver-trainer Lou Huber Jr. said the bruise has healed.

One of Elaine Rodney's owners James Kennedy, said his filly is "100 per cent ready." Clint Hodgins, Canadian reinsman, will drive Elaine from the No. 2 slot in a front tier of 10 trotters. Uncle Sam drew the No. 4 starting spot in the front tier.

The first horse to win two heats wins the coveted Hambletonian Trophy and the winner's share of a gross purse of $144,590.14. Second money is $35,424.59, third $14,169.83 and fourth $7,084.92.

Cincy Salesman Tops Amateurs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Edgar Bradley of Cincinnati, 28-year-old book salesman, went over Camargo County club Tuesday in par with 69-71-140, leading qualifiers for the U.S. Amateur golf tournament.

But only five of the seven places available were picked up in the rain-soaked 36-hole qualifier.

A three-way tilt-breaker is scheduled at noon today to determine the last two qualifiers.

Two Columbus golfers qualified — Don E. Albert with 68-73-141 and Don Stickney with 71-71-142 — along with two others from Cincinnati, John Wood II, 70-71-141, and Roger McManus, 76-69-145.

Tigers Battle Groveport Unit

Each Team Scores Once during Drill

The Circleville High School grid squad knocked heads with a hard-moving Groveport eleven in a scrimmage session here yesterday.

Each team scored once in the unofficial contest. Groveport tallied first on a sustained drive with Halfback Don Troendle sweeping right end from four yards out.

Left Halfback Garold Dade did the honors for Circleville by breaking off tackle and scampering 45 yards.

The remainder of the test was a punch-and-go affair with neither team able to score. Both coaching staffs took advantage of the practice to experiment with plays and procedures.

BOTH teams fashioned drives which fell short. Circleville missed a score once from Quarterback Pat Rooney hit Jake Bailey with a pass which went for 30 yards. The drive was halted near Groveport's end zone.

CHS coaches still formed the opinion that the inexperienced Tigers need considerable work. Line Coaches Jack Weikert and John Adler said both their offensive and defensive units must improve on aggressiveness and mobility.

Backfield Coach Dick Fisher also cast a critical eye, especially in ballhandling and assignment roles.

The Tigers resume drills today and tomorrow, then prepare for an intersquad contest at Friday night's Band Mothers' Preview.

Rams Wash Hands Of Cannon Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Eloy Hirsch, Los Angeles Rams general manager, washed his hands of the celebrated Billy Cannon case with these words:

"We see no benefits to be derived from pursuing the case any further."

Hirsch said Tuesday the Rams are dropping the right of appeal a federal court decision which sent Cannon, former Louisiana State University All-America halfback, to Houston of the American Football League.

The Rams claimed Cannon signed to play for them in the National Football League but later signed a more remunerative contract with Houston.

Olson To Battle As Light Heavy

CHICAGO (AP)—Carl (Bobo) Olson, former middleweight champ turned light heavyweight, clashed with undefeated Doug Jones in a 10-round bout in Chicago Stadium tonight.

This will be the first time Olson has appeared in Chicago since he lost his title here to Sugar Ray Robinson in 1955. Robinson knocked him out in the fourth round of that match.

The bout will be televised by the ABC network at 1 p.m. (CDT). Scoring will be under the 5-point must system.

U.S. Track Stars Seek To Amass Olympic Honors

ROME (AP)—America's husky shotput aces, favored to make a sweep of the medals, led the way today into the opening of the Olympic track and field competition, where the United States hopes to overhaul Russia in the unofficial team point standings.

Bill Nieder, Dallas Long and two-time champion Parry O'Brien didn't even bother to pull off their sweat suits as they qualified for this afternoon's shotput final.

Nieder, the former University of Kansas ace who holds the world record at 65 feet 7 inches, and the other two Yanks easily tossed the shot past the 54-11½ qualifying minimum.

The United States, trailing Russia by 26 points, also got rolling in its pursuit of points as Dave Sime, Ray Norton and Frank Budd eased into the second round of the 100-meter dash along with world record holders Aemin Hary of Germany and Harry Jerome of Canada.

The only other track and field event to be decided today, however, was the women's broad jump—where only one U.S. gal, the 1956 silver medal winner, Willye White of Greenwood, Miss., qualified.

But while the U.S. swimming squad also advanced two for tonight's finals in the men's 100-meter backstroke event — Bob Bennett of Encino, Calif., and Frank McKinney of Indianapolis — all was not the best for Uncle Sam.

Brian Phelps of Britain, the 16-year-old European champion, shocked U.S. hopes by leading 16 qualifiers into Thursday's semifinals of the men's high diving event.

Gary Tobian of Glendale, Calif., the favorite in this event after pulling a surprise by winning the springboard gold medal, was fourth, and Bob Webster of Santa Anna, Calif., was ninth.

The three U.S. entries, Joann Terry of Indianapolis, Irene Robertson of Inglewood, Calif., and Shirley Crowder of Atlanta, were eliminated in the opening heats of the women's 80-meter hurdles. Miss Robertson was last in her heat, won by Russia's great Irina Press in 10.7 seconds, equalling the Olympic record set in 1956 by Australia's Shirley Strickland.

The United States also suffered a setback in rowing, when the pair with coxswain from the Lake Washington (Seattle) Rowing Club was beaten by four lengths by Russia. America's defending champion in this event, gets a second chance to make Saturday's final in Thursday's repechages.

Sime, the Duke dandy from Durham, N.C., Harry and Jerome—all running in separate heats—were timed in 10.5, with Sime finishing third, the last qualifying spot, in his race. Harry and Jerome share the record of 10 fat.

Great performances in swimming Tuesday that won two gold medals gave the U.S. team 72 points, only one behind Germany and 26 points behind the Russians who were capitalizing in fields they were expected to dominate.

The swimming duels electrified a crowd of 10,000. And there were offbeat incidents to magnify the interest. Carolyn Schuler of Orinda, Calif., broke her own Olympic record in winning the finals of the 100-meter butterfly race. Bill Mulliken of Champaign, Ill., triumphed in the 200 meter breaststroke finals.

Miss Schuler's great victory was almost lost in the shuffle. They paid more attention to 14-year-old Carolyn Wood of Portland, Ore., who was just about in the lead at the turn in the butterfly and suddenly bumped into the lane buoy. She grabbed the chain and seemingly quit. She climbed out of the pool and ran into hiding in shame. Later, she explained she had swallowed water and "couldn't go on."

Germany, pushing in the team battle, got a great boost in the aquatics from Dresden's diving doll, Ingrid Kramer. She copped the 10-meter (33 feet) platform title from Paul Jean Pope, Santa Ana, Calif., America's veteran of three Olympics. Paula burst into tears, knowing this was her last crack at Olympic competition.

The Russians sprang two surprises. Viktor Kapitonov won the 175.3-kilometer (108.6 miles) cycling road race, beating out Italy's Livio Trape, in a sport Moscow never has bothered much with before.

And in fencing, the Soviet Viktor Jdanovich captured Russia's first fencing gold medal, the men's individual foils. The U.S. Arthur Axelrod, of New York, at 39, won the third place bronze-first time since 1932 that the Americans had done so well at fencing.

One of the great disappointments for the American team came in the wrestling. The last three U.S. entries were eliminated as Russia and her satellite East European comrades completely dominated the Greco-Roman division.

In the late morning men's track events the three U.S. entries qualified for the second round in the 800 meters. Ernie Cunniffe of Claremont, Calif., eased in with 1:48.8, and Jerry Siebert of Wilts, Calif., had 1:48.9. Tom Murphy of Brooklyn qualified by winning the final heat in 1:52.1.

A second U.S. rowing crew, also from Lake Washington, looked for another chance in the repechages after being beat in the four oars without cox by Britain in the final 100 meters. The Yanks were Art Ayrault, Ted Nash, John Sayre and Dick Wailes.

Red Devil Gains Two First Places

Red Devil, owned by Robert Walton of Stoutsville, earned two first places in horse show competition Sunday at Brush Track near Jacksonton.

Red Devil placed first in the cloverleaf barrel race and first in the flag race. He also gained a third in the 440-yard race and a fourth in the pick up race. Junior Shelpman was in the saddle.

Silver Trays were awarded to first place winners.

Tractor Pull Set Here Labor Day

The Central Ohio Championship Tractor Pulling Contest will be held at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds Labor Day.

The championship pull will start at 9:30 a. m. Some top competitors are expected to participate. Sponsor of the event is the Central Ohio Tractor Pullers Club.

Days Softball Team Captures DuPont Crown

The Days team won the DuPont Softball League championship last night with a 4-0 victory over "D" Shift.

It marked the second straight win for Days in a two-of-three playoff for the loop championship. Last week the champs won a 5-2 contest over the "D" nine in the first playoff game.

The test yesterday saw Days score four runs on four hits. Bill Smith hurled for the champions.

The "D" team picked up two hits off Smith, Warren Elliott was charged with the loss.

"D" Shift won the league's first and second rounds, but Days came on strong to take the third round and the championship.

Marvin Payne directed the loop this season. He said approximately 25 games were played, all on the softball diamond at Ted Lewis Park.

Marshall Biography Headed for Printer

NEW YORK (AP) — An authorized biography of the late Gen. George C. Marshall, expected to illuminate obscure and controversial aspects of World War II, is headed for publication.

The first of three volumes to be brought out by the Viking Press is due early in 1963. The biography will be based on a half-million personal papers and more than 50 hours of tape-recorded and stenographic interviews.

General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, head of the George C. Marshall Research Foundation of Lexington, Va., made the announcement Monday.

Jesse Owens Is Pleased As His Olympic Marks Fall

ROME (AP)—The rise of a new and phenomenal generation of record-smashing track champions has left no pain or jealousy in the heart of Jesse Owens, the all-time great of America's Olympians.

"I feel like a father who has come to watch his successful children," the brilliant Ohio State athlete of the 1930s said today.

"It gives me a wonderful sensation to watch them win and to hang up new records. I feel that I have had a part in it."

It was Owens who on an unforgettable afternoon, May 25,

1935, at Ann Arbor, Mich., set four records within the space of an hour. One of them—the broad jump record—endured until Ralph Boston bettered it a couple of weeks before the opening of these 17th Olympic Games.

In the 1936 games at Berlin, with Hitler goose-stepping to ward World War II, the lithe Negro from Cleveland won four gold medals in an amazing one-man show. He won the 100 and 200 meter races, the broad jump and shared in the sprint relay.

His records in the 100 (10.3 seconds) and the broad jump (26 feet, 5 1/2 inches) still are the targets of the world's present stars during the next ten days.

"As my records fell, one by one, I found myself with mixed emotions," Owens said.

"At first, I was resentful. It was like owning a toy and treasuring it for many years—then having it suddenly snatched away.

"There was disappointment and a great feeling of emptiness. Then I realized that I had set the records which drove these boys to new heights. It gave me a wonderful warm feeling."

Owens today is lean and hard, although at 185 he is 20 pounds above his weight of the 1936 games. Tremendous energy and drive give him a look of youthfulness.

Two weeks shy of his 47th birthday, Jesse works with the Illinois Youth Commission out of Chicago. His job is kids—keeping them out of trouble, rehabilitating the delinquents.

Indians Lose Stigman to Virus Bug

BALTIMORE (AP)—Dick Stigman, scheduled to pitch for the Cleveland Indians in the opener of a two-game series with the Baltimore Orioles Tuesday night, was scratched from the lineup when he developed a virus infection.

The young southpaw was sent back to the hotel when trainer Wally Bock discovered that he was running a temperature.

Jim Perry took Stigman's place on the mound and absorbed his seventh defeat to go with his 15 victories as the Orioles took a 4-1 decision.

Bobby Locke, who pitched well in relief against the New York Yankees last Saturday, will open for the Indians tonight. He will be opposed by southpaw Steve Barber.

Chuck Estrada, 22-year-old right hander who is a strong candidate for rookie of the year honors, beat Perry. It was his 15th victory, tying him with Perry as the winningest pitchers in the American League. Estrada has lost eight.

A fourth-inning home run by Joe Morgan was the only run off Estrada. It was Morgan's first American League homer. The Indians' new third baseman also got an infield single. The only other Cleveland hits were singles by Rocky Bridges and Tito Francona.

The Orioles got a run in the first inning on a leadoff double by Jackie Brandt, an infield out and a sacrifice fly by Brooks Robinson. A homer by Gene Stephens gave them another run in the second.

Baltimore made it 4-0 in the third on a single by Gino Woodling and a home run by Jim Gentile.

Perry pitched scoreless ball over the next four innings and Jack Harshman retired the Orioles without a hit in the eighth.

The homers by Stephens and Gentile boosted the total hit off Perry this season to 29. That is only three short of the club record set by Earl Wynn four years ago.

Simple Home Fall Fatal To Famous War Ace

SWANSEA, Wales (AP) — Ira (Taffy) Jones, 65, famous airman of World War I who survived 28 crashes and was credited with 40 victories in air duels, died Monday night in a hospital.

Death was due to injuries suffered in a fall from a ladder at his home six weeks ago.

Jersey City Making Bid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The streaking Jersey City Reds, making a belated bid for a berth in the International League post-season playoffs, have extended their winning skein to seven games.

The Reds took a doubleheader from the Columbus Jets Tuesday night, 4-2 and 3-0, to move within 1 1/2 games of fourth-place Buffalo Buffalo split with Montreal, winning 10-1 before losing 4-3.

Rochester blanked pennant-winning Toronto 3-0 and Miami edged Richmond 5-4.

Brooks Lawrence, gaining his third triumph, went the distance for Jersey in the opener. Borrego Alvarez hit his 17th homer to pace the Reds. Orlando Pena shut out Columbus on a two-hitter in these second contest as he evened his season's record at 11-11.

Jersey City collected 19 hits in the two games. Jim Umbricht and Bob Veale were the losing pitchers for the Jets.

U.S. Space Chief Tags Oct. 4 for Red Effort

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A broad hint that he expects the Soviet Union to try to put a man in space soon, perhaps on Oct. 4, has come from space agency chief Keith Glennan.

Oct. 4 would be the third anniversary of the launching of the first Soviet satellite, Sputnik I.

At a news conference Monday Glennan, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said recent Soviet success in returning animals from orbit indicates "it's about time for another attempt."

State Fair Honors Scouts Hands Out More Ribbons

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Boy Scouts virtually had the run of the fairgrounds today as the 1960 Ohio State Fair feted the group on Boy Scout Day.

All Boy Scouts in uniform were admitted free to the fairgrounds. They were given free ride tickets and reduced prices for other attractions.

The day was scheduled also as Director of Agriculture Day. Robert H. Terhune, Ohio's agriculture director, set up the program to observe the 50th anniversary of scouting.

Also today, the Director of Agriculture Trovny, part of the fair's harness racing program, went on the line in a $26,000 race for which 58 three-year-old pacers were eligible.

Tuesday, Good Counsel, owned and driven by David McClain of Lima, won the $30,000 Buckeye State Pace for two-year-olds, three divisions plus a fourth "race-off" heat were needed to determine the winner.

The winner beat out 25 other horses and for the second straight day a McClain-owned horse emerged winner of the feature event. Monday his Miss Demon Song won the Ohio State Trot for two-year-olds.

Main attraction at the fair Tuesday was dedication of a fraternal and service organizations building, held in observance of Fraternal Day.

Participating in the ceremonies were Dudley L. Simms, Charleston, W. Va., a past president of Lions International and former Ohio highway safety director Gordon Jeffery, supreme prelate of the Loyal Order of Moose.

The Ohio Grange had a day-long program in the arts and crafts building for Farm Organization Day.

A flock of livestock awards, most of them in the junior division, were given out Tuesday as the judging moved into full swing.

A 970-pound shorthorn steer exhibited by Charles Beal, 16, of Mount Zion (Crawford County) was judged the grand champion steer of the junior show. Second place went to the exhibit of Gerald Miller of Wood County—an Aberdeen angus steer named Kat. Miller took first place for Angus breed steer showmanship.

Among other winners in the Junior Fair steer show was Sam Forsythe, Fayette County, grand champion Hereford.

A 13-year-old Shelby County youth, Joseph DeLoe of Fort Loramie, exhibited the grand champion Holstein female in the junior show. He also won the 4-H senior and over-all titles for 2-year-old heifers.

Other winners included: Senior yearling heifer, Richard C. Lewis Butler County, 4-H junior reserve championship.

Two sisters, Joyce and Mary Carolyn Fleming, ages 16 and 18 respectively, of near Delaware, battled each other for top honors in the Southdown ram lamb, yearling ram, yearling ewe and ewe lamb classes. Joyce was judged to have the champion ewe and Mary Carolyn the champion ram of the Southdown breed. Mary Carolyn also won second in 4-H showmanship.

Louise Douce, 12, of Hillsboro, won rosettes for both the champion Shropshire ram and ewe.

A Clinton County girl and an Allen County boy won top showmanship honors in the junior swine show. Gretchen Myers of Sabina won in the 4-H division, and Norbert Ebbskotte of Delphos won in the FFA division.

Following are some of the too swine breed placings in FFA and 4-H divisions:

Berkshire—FFA gilt and boar, James R. Hinaman, Marion; 4-H gilt, Sandra Emerick, Cridersville.

Chester White—4-H gilt Roger Shepard, Washington Court House. Duroc Jersey—FFA gilt, Doug Lichtenberger, Marion.

Hampshire—FFA gilt, Phil Evans, Cedarville; boar, Vincent Ebbskotte, Delphos; 4-H gilt, Charles Andrews, Bloomingburg.

Poland China—FFA gilt, Robert Brumgarth, Orient; boar, Stephen Goyer, Marion; 4-H gilt, Tommy Dalton, Wilmington.

Spotted Poland China—FFA gilt and boar Larry Longanbach, Fremont; 4-H gilt, Ruth McDaniel, Baltimore.

Business Briefs

Wes Edstrom Sr. and Wes Edstrom Jr., Edstrom Motors 150 E. Main St., will be among 1,000 dealers and salesmen who will preview the 1961 Dodge cars and trucks at Cleveland August 31. The new Dodge models will go on display at Wes Edstrom Motors September 29.

Samuel H. Dennis, registered pharmacist, has joined the Circleville Rexall Drugs. He has a total of 11 years in the drug store business.

Dennis is a member of the Lions Club, was Community Fund worker in 1959, and business manager for the Pickaway Bloodmobile drive for 1960.

He has lived in Circleville for 14 months with children David and Karen and Mrs. Dennis.

New Library Time

The Circleville Library will be closed Labor Day and will open Tuesday with the fall and winter schedule. The library will be open from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Monday through Thursday and 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Friday and Saturday.

Farm Bureau Is Host for Two Counties

The Pickaway County Farm Bureau Advisory Council Committee was host to Ross and Fairfield Committees at a recent meeting at the Farm Bureau home on E. Main St.

September has been designated Council Month throughout Ohio. Members of the Pickaway County Committee are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tootle, chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Willard England.

Goals for forming new councils were set by the counties. Pickaway's goal is five, Ross three and Fairfield six.

A contest will be conducted between the three counties. The one having the highest number of new councils organized between Nov. 1, 1959 and Oct. 31, 1960 will be treated to a steak supper.

An interesting topic, "How Can We Have a Greater Voice in Our Schools?" will be a center of discussion for state councils. Farm Bureau officials said it is a timely topic since most schools in Ohio will be starting the first week of September.

Consignment Sale At New Holland

The New Holland Lions Club will sponsor a consignment sale on September 10 in the New Holland High School. In addition to the hundreds of items offered for sale, there will be a concert by the Miami Trace Band.

A fish fry will also be held in connection with this annual event. The profits from the sale and the fish fry will go to the Community Recreation Park.

Choir To Rehearse

Presbyterian Church choir will meet for rehearsal at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in the church.

Tamworth—FFA gilt and boar, John E. Schroeder, Columbus Grove; 4-H gilt, Mary Jane Horn, Hillsboro.

In the Ohio State Fair swine division the following are some of the champions:

Yorkshires — Grand champion boar and grand champion sow, Valley View Farm, Rt. 1 Arcanum; reserve champion boar, Donald Michael, Rt. 1, Farmersville; reserve champion sow, Earl Miller, Rt. 2, Georgetown.

Berkshires — Grand champion boar, Robert Littlejohn, Christianburg; reserve champion boar, L. E. Mautz and Sons, Rt. 5, Marion. Spotted Poland China — Grand champion boar, Bob and Carol Grove, Rt. 2, Shelby.

Chester White — Grand champion boar, George Corran McComb; reserve champion boar, Calvin Krichbaum, Crestline.

The following awards were among those presented in the Ohio State Fair sheep show:

Corriedale — Reserve champion ram, D. F. Wolfe, Rt. 1, Upper Sandusky; grand champion ewe, Buckeye Farms, Rt. 1, Rushsylvania; reserve champion ewe D. V. Jordan and sons, Rt. 3, Fredricktown.

Becky Borrer of Orient in Pickaway County was crowned the 1960 Shorthorn Lassie Queen. Members of her court were Patty O'Connor of Mason, Mary Jo Bihl of West Union, Barbara Derry of Zanesville and Bobbie Dudgeon of Belleville.

Fair officials said more than 50,000 people walked through the gates of the Fairgrounds Tuesday. The 9 p. m. paid adult attendance was 23,970. This did not include advanced, children or reserved tickets to the circus.

"... MY PEOPLE, THEY'RE WONDERFUL!"—Harold Harris (left) is vice president of Channel Master corporation, an Ellenville, N. Y., firm which makes TV antennas. Earlier this year he underwent a complicated operation to remove pressure from a nerve in his head. When word was received that the operation was a success, one of his employees remarked, "I wish Harold could see the smiles on our faces." Working from 6 one morning until 7:30 that evening, two photographers took pictures of all 704 employees. The photos were mounted on a huge billboard the day before Harris returned to work. He said, "God bless my people, they're wonderful." The billboard is 40 feet long and 16 feet high.

"...and tell the kids I miss them, too."

Even though miles stretch between, you're only a word away when you phone them "long distance."

Your long distance call is a comforting act of reassurance that breaks up the loneliness on both ends of the line.

So use "long distance" for its personal worth as well as for business. A long distance call always gets priority attention—and it costs so little.

For added convenience, keep a record of all long distance numbers you use—and call by number to avoid delay. (We'll gladly give you your own free Personal Telephone Directory to list numbers in. Ask at any General Telephone business office.)
